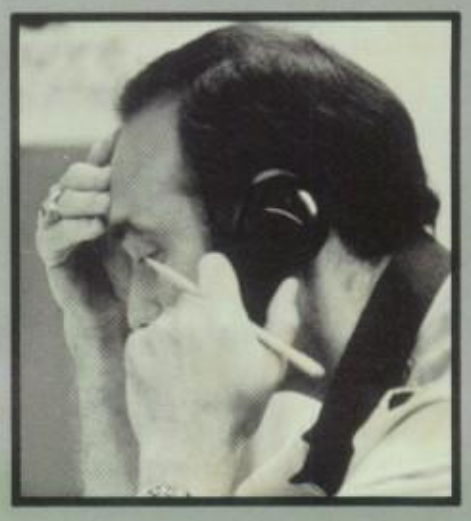
LOARA IS



Ask ten people, "What is Loara?", and they'll all say something different: "Terrific," "The BEST," "Boring," "Unique," and so on. Everyone has different feelings.

Do you get involved at school, or do you spend as little time here as possible? Do you work hard? Or, do you find school easy? Are you having fun? Everyone's opinion differs; we all lead different life styles.

When you look back on your high school life years from now, will you remember the good times, and the bad? Sharing victory? Sharing defeat? Will you keep in touch with your high school buddies?

As time passes, your opinions and feelings toward school may change. Will you look back and say, "Loara was . . ."? You might. But for now, "Loara is . . ."

Is Loara High School a place to have fun? Sure it is! Work it out right, and you can learn and have fun at the same time.

Slip into English teacher, Larry Klevos' room during lunch and listen to the soothing music that can always be found. Or visit the computers in the Math department and program the number of Doritos consumed on campus in a single day.

It's always a pleasure when there's a day with shortened periods to allow for a pep assembly or a senate meeting. But do five minutes less each period really make a noticeable difference?

It's fun to stay after school. Watch our ever-practicing band hard at work. Over in the art department you might catch a future Rembrandt finishing a masterpiece. And there's always a lunch table of people talking and having a good time. Many seniors know they won't see many of their friends after moving on to UCLA, Cal State Fullerton, or Cypress J.C.

The day before winter vacation is one of the year's best days. Everyone is in a festive mood. Too bad it's not always like that.

There is always something to relieve the tension of every day school life. Maybe that's what makes Loara great.

1. THE MACHINE AGE — Modern tennis instruction helps Leslie Lasson and Marian Lope learn the game.
2. FAKING IT — Junior Julie Bader, forgetting to bring her piccolo, checks out this over-sized drumstick as a possible substitute.
3. A CLOSER LOOK — The police science class of Mr. Tom Dorosky is treated to an extensive inspection of an Anaheim Police Department squad car. Observing students include Robyn Dubach, Casy Davis, and Tom Thomson.
4. THE GREAT PUMPKIN — Senior Mark Hall probes the gooey insides of a pumpkin during the popular home economics class, "On Your Own."
5. PORTABLE TOMBSTONES — Senior Terri Oppelt narrates the first of many entertaining skits put on by Loara's student cabinet throughout the year. This one is a take-off on "Star Wars."
6. INTERRUPTED — Obviously senior Diana Carlson is startled by something as she listens to sophomore Tod Rock prior to the half-time show at the coliseum.
7. LAUGH IN — Sophomore Linda Miller seems to be enjoying the jokes and stories her friends are telling during lunch.

Many may scoff at school spirit, but our survey showed that that's what Saxons enjoy most. It gives us a chance to be together and socialize, to get involved and have a good time. Times like these will be remembered many years from now. Loara is fun.

A great school is made up of many things. One important factor is the teachers. They are forever keeping us entertained, but at the same time they educate us.

Remember the clever titles Mr. LeRoy Shelske and Mr. Joe Stout use for the daily lessons, such as "Fungus Among Us"? What about Mr. Bill Cochran's never-ending supply of jokes and puns that are constantly sprinkled through his history lessons. Have you ever seen government instructor Dave Nelson's "quick and easy grader"? It's a dart board with an "A" where the tiny bullseye is.

If you were lucky, maybe you had a class instructed by John, sometimes known as "Boom-Boom" Dahlem, and were able to enjoy his wildly decorated classroom. Another teacher with a knack for decorating is fantasy teacher Jane Davis of the English Department.

Analytic math teacher Ron Young keeps his classes alive with the imaginative little cartoons he draws on his homework dittos. Over in the phys ed department, Nedra Soos gives out hand-made trophies to her lucky students, and French teacher Genvieve Ray always has a delightful story or two to tell.

There is something else about our teachers, however. They insist we work.

1. V FOR VICTORY — Spirit and pride in a great campus are demonstrated by cheerleader Peggy Price as she leads fellow Saxons during a rousing football assembly.
2. UNITY — Seniors, sophomores, juniors but all mighty Saxons are shown during Alma Mater. Center: Junior Jack Colker and senior George Bennet, both water polo players.
3. PREPARATION — Getting ready for sophomore football action against Los Alamitos is tenth grade gridder Pat Hayes.
4. SMOOTH ACTION — Junior Geoff Graybeal is caught by our underwater camera during water polo practice.
5. FEROCIOUS — The sophomore water polo team's only girl member, Beth Gamble courageously takes on her opponent during the exciting meet with rival school Los Alamitos.
6. GREAT FOOD — If our lunch menu weren't fantastic, the lines wouldn't be so crowded, right? Wrong!
7. YOGURT FOR LUNCH — English teacher Diane Miller seldom has time for a real sit-down lunch.
8. PREPARED — Going over the steps in her head for the last time, sophomore drill team member Sandy DiDonato readies herself for the dazzling half time show.
9. RAPPING — A deserted lunch table is the perfect place for quiet conversation as discovered by Denise Rizzo and Scott Smith.

A combination of things make Loara what it is today. The most important factor, of course, is the people. Second, there is the spirit and the enthusiasm of the Saxons. Third, the teachers and staff do their best to keep the students happy. Loara is great.

Hard work is a mixed blessing. It's not easy to study and study for those up-coming finals, but if you do, it's worth it.

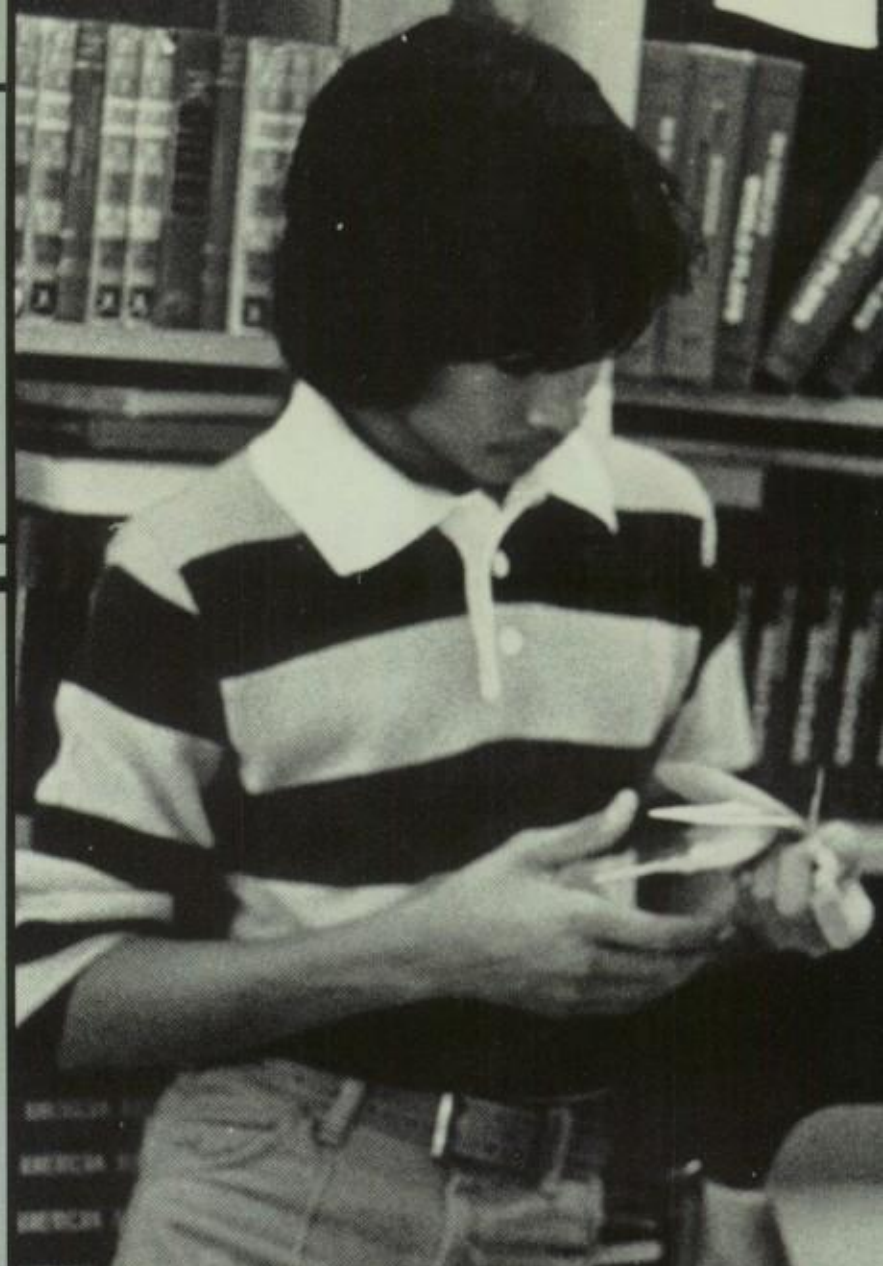
This year's sophomores have it the roughest. They are the first set of students to be confronted with the "Basic Skills" tests, which they must pass in order to earn a high school diploma. This means much study in English, reading, and math.

Some tests, of course, are voluntary such as the Scholastic Aptitude Tests seniors take for college placement. It isn't a test to look forward to. Are any?

But work is part of the elective classes, too. Anthropology, psychology, sociology, economics, physics, chemistry, Russian lit., and calculus are all tough ones.

Some students, anxious to learn, see to it that they get as many of these classes as possible. A free education comes only once. But there are those who prefer an easier schedule, even a four-period day. Loara is made up of all kinds of people.

1. PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT — Multi-talented senior Kevin Ross knows that concentration and many hours of practice are needed to play any instrument properly. Ross is one of the band's outstanding members.
2. FORMAL EDUCATION — Sophomore Butch Gamboa appears rather impressed on his first visit to Loara's fully equipped media center.
3. IN CHARGE — Drum Corps leader Steve Manasevit has undertaken quite a responsibility. It's up to him to see that everything in his section runs smoothly.
4. OFF BROADWAY — Work becomes a play as shown here by Corine Cook, Bob Mosier and Tammy Francoeur during the premiere performance of "The Peanuts Gang."
5. I GOT IT — Alexis Nease, junior, shows good form as teammates Bridgett Stillson, senior, and Polly Chalovich, junior, watch during a tough practice after school.
6. SLUMBERLAND — Junior Tony Cayer appears to have dozed off during the weekly "relax and read" program that takes place second period. Most students, however, make full use of this time, by either reading books or magazines.
7. BRAIN STRAIN — Senior Michele Orban's thoughts are directed solely to her psychology book as she does some last minute studying on finals day.



WORK

4.

6.

7.

Acceptance is the attitude of Loara students toward the hard work which is always a part of school. Each of us knows that it is an individual decision, anyway. Who can complain about that? Loara is work.

1.

Probably the most important element in any school is its people. The people who attend Loara are different than any others.

Loara has a variety of people. They come in large and small groups. There's the ever-popular athlete, with that smile of confidence and a girl in his arms. The intellectual can be seen in the library or perhaps at a CSF or MGM meeting. The band members make up one of the largest groups on campus, always sticking together.

Loara's teachers are also an important factor. They are always there when you need them, ready to listen to whatever you have to say. Many older Saxons return periodically to see how his or her favorite teacher is doing.

Teachers also devote a lot of their off-school hours to work with the various clubs and organizations.

Going through school with the same people results in some lasting relationships after graduation. Each individual at Loara shares some sort of special friendship with that one special person who means more to them than any other. Behind each person you may know just on the surface, there is also the real person beneath.

But, with a large student body, such as Loara's there are also many problems . . .

1. SMILES — Senior songleaders Lori Wright and Robyn Dubach are all smiles as they perform during the year's first pep assembly.
2. HYSTERIA — It's anybody's guess, but something is cracking up varsity cheerleaders Denise Langner, Dannette Morris, Diane Stephens, Liz Schultz, Stacy Farrell and Vickie Pipes, and the result could be disastrous.
3. IN FORMATION — Drummers Mark Ross, sophomore; Diana Carlson, senior; Paul Kratzer, senior; and Joy Song, junior, performed during the first half-time show of the year.
4. INTERRUPTION — Fortunately, the artistic temperament of senior Bob Ray did not erupt at the distraction caused by a local photographer.
5. PEP ADDRESS — Winning football coach Herb Hill introduces Saxon of the Week Mike O'Brien to an appreciative student audience.
6. DELIVERY SERVICE — Class ring delivery day is one of the most important for the juniors who ordered rings last Spring and have been waiting, waiting, waiting.
7. TIRED FEET — Senior Ken Bishop, and other cross country runners, put in many miles and many hours of practice during the summer and fall.
8. LUAU — ASB activities commissioner Paul Beale surveys the campus to see how many Saxons dressed for the occasion: Hawaiian Day.

Survey results: The students of Loara have a very positive attitude toward school life. Even though we are different, we are united and proud to represent our school. Loara is people.

At Loara, "hassle" seems unavoidable. It may be something small: you have an over-due library book. It could be something big: you "rear end" your friend's new Camaro. But hassles are everywhere.

You forget to set your alarm and end up coming to school late. In your mad rush to get to school, you leave your lunch money at home. The faces in your unit office are starting to look familiar.

Trying to get a schedule change is next to impossible. Does Coach Hill believe your story about how you really did leave your gym clothes at home? Does your ballpoint pen suddenly go dry during the calculus final? And where is your lab partner on the day you are supposed to dissect rats in biology?

The janitor attacks your jammed locker with a crowbar. It'll never be the same. How many times does your drivers ed instructor have to use his brakes due to your unruly driving habits? And where's that relevant newspaper article you're supposed to bring to your history class on current events day?

Yes, life at Loara is full of hassles, but no matter how traumatic the problem, everyone makes it through.

1. OPTIMISM — School's hassles can't depress "Peppermint Patty" or "Schroeder" of the "Peanuts Gang," sometimes known as Corine Cook and Bruce Burton.
2. CHOW TIME — Junior band member Jon Peters samples the food supplied by memorial coliseum on the day of the Saxon half-time show.
3. TIME OUT — Apparently seeking a corner to escape is junior Tim O'Neill, who appears happy at being discovered.
4. KICKING BACK — Getting away from the noise and confusion of everyday school life are seniors Sandy Smith and Jeff Fuller.
5. I'M TELLING YOU, CHARLIE BROWN — Hassles are nothing new to everyone's favorite blockhead, "Charlie Brown," played by Bob Mosier, senior, who is shown here enduring the wrath of "Freida," played by senior Mary Price.
6. WHICH IS BIGGER? — Many people are quite suprised when they learn that it's petite sophomore Vera Judge who plays the gigantic tim toms.
7. OH NO! — Senior Unit secretary Mrs. Virginia Pentecost has a unique approach to the hassles and pressures of work at Loara.

Students' biggest gripes came as no surprise in the senior survey. The always-hazardous parking lot with speed bumps, congestions, and traffic jams and the infamous attendance procedures head the list. Other complaints are about the food and smoking in the bathrooms. Loara is hassle.

There's nothing like action to make your life as a student more interesting. And Loara is full of action all day long.

In the morning you'll find the band, drill team, and courtiers on the field perfecting their half-time routine. As students arrive, the student store bustles with business. And you'll see numerous groups of people discussing what they did last night.

There's plenty of action in the classrooms; as you pass from room to room, you may see science students working hard on an experiment. Chamber singers are getting ready for their next big concert. That boy in Mr. Rowe's Mark Twain class is giving his oral presentation.

Lunch is full of action. There are always meetings for some sort of group or organization, and perhaps you'll see your friends at Del Taco if you sneak off campus to eat.

Engines roar and wheels screech as impatient Saxons wait for their turn to get out of the parking lot. But hours of strenuous practice await the members of the athletic department.

1. IT LOOKS EASY, BUT — Drill team first assistant, Frieda Runge, looks poised and relaxed at finale of a pep assembly routine.
2. CALISTHENICS — Some unique stretching exercises are demonstrated by Saxon Andrea McBain.
3. READY — SET — TYPE — Sophomore Teresa Bender gives her complete attention to her typing skills at beginning speed-typing test.
4. SAXON ACTION — Junior gridders, Don Benson and Randy Budd 'take care of' a Kennedy player during homecoming game, which Loara won 27-21.
5. MAKING A POINT — Stressing the importance of class spirit and participation during the first senior senate meeting, class president Chris Walker addresses the most active seniors on campus.
6. FRONT AND CENTER — Cross Country Coach Dave Hurlburt addressed each fall assembly to introduce the cross country team and applaud its victories.
7. CLOSE INSPECTION — Carefully studying the engine block of a Toyota is senior Rick Baldenegro who, with many others, enjoys Loara's auto classes.
8. ALOHA — Seniors Michelle Haskill and Pam Poncy are caught off guard as they make their way across campus to their third-period class.

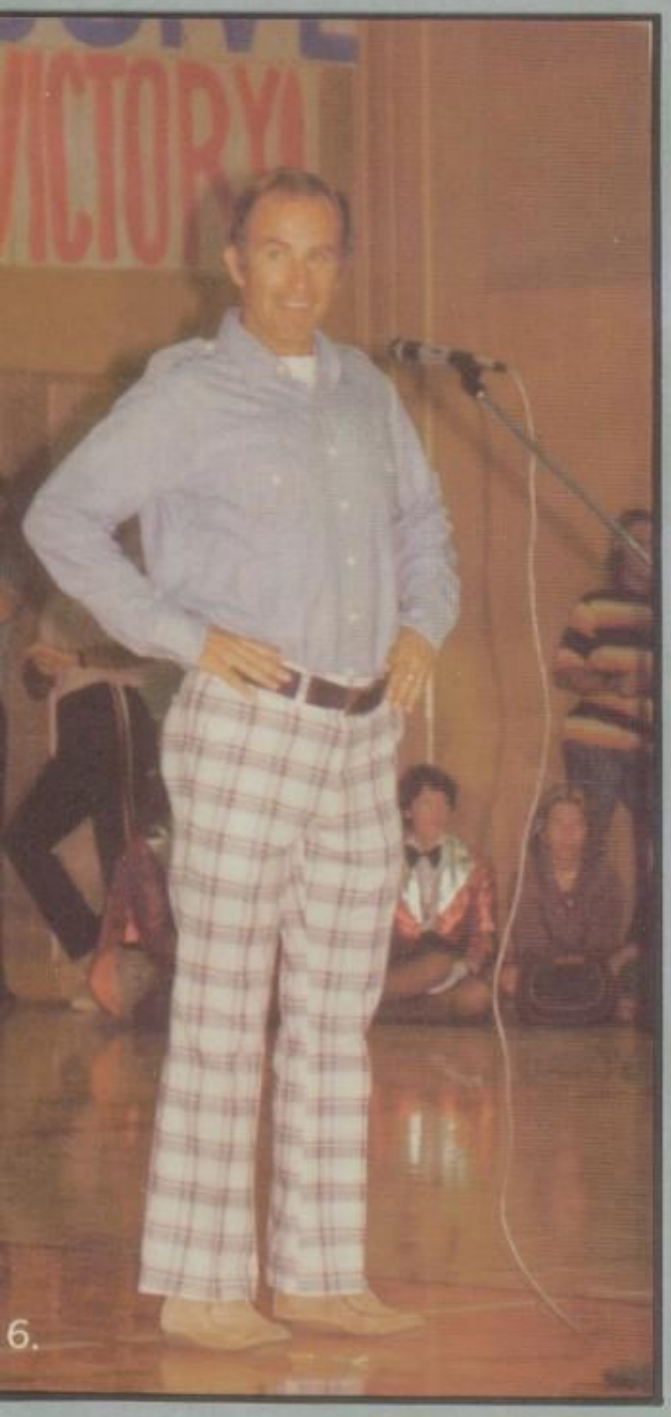
4.



6.

8.

A survey of Loara seniors found that the best thing about school involvement is the closeness it develops between the school and the student. Involvement helps one develop pride and a sense of belonging. That way we really feel like a part of Loara. Loara is action.

Seniors

After living through Loara for two long years, you're finally on top. Being a senior meant not having to fear any other students over you. Seniors rule. They're the tops.

There was excitement. Remember all of the preparation you went through getting ready for college? How much time did you spend fixing your hair for the all-important senior pictures? Did wearing your senior T-shirt to school make you feel good?

There was tragedy. Loara lost one of its finest seniors, Kate Kennelly, in a car accident over the Christmas vacation.

There was responsibility. How many graduation announcements did you send out in June? Who can forget the Senior Follies? Did you participate? Did you learn anything from your government class?

Tradition and pride were only two of the many things that made the class of 78 — the seniors — so special.

Diversity and activity mark Class of '78

Representing with their own interests and accomplishments the diversities and activities of the senior class were the officers, led by president Chris Walker; vice-president, Bridgitt Stillson; treasurer, Sara Schantz; and secretary, Sabrina Scanlon. Credits earned by this group include varsity sports, academic honors, community service, honorary titles, and hard work.

Such accomplishments qualified them to lead the senior class, a class which was made up of many individuals, who, in their twelve years of formal education, had branched out into many activities. Such diversity was helped by the fact that many seniors arranged flexible school schedules, some requiring only two or three periods on the campus.

Off campus activities included work weeks of from 15 to 30 hours, and ROP programs which were vocationally oriented and took students to retail businesses and hospitals. Extra-curricular activities took up many hours also for practices, planning, and even those yearbook deadlines. Seniors were the dominating force in the band, clubs, and the classroom.

1. Senior Class Officers: Chris Walker, president; Bridgitt Stillson, vice president; Sara Schantz, treasurer; and Sabrina Scanlan, secretary. Insert: The moment of victory appears to genuinely surprise the new 1977-78 Homecoming Queen, Sara Schantz.
2. Thoughtfully considering their future, and the end to playground activities, are the officers of '78.
3. Announcing graduation plans to the senior senate, class president Walker is prepared to answer all questions.
4. Vice president Bridgitt Stillson is startled in the midst of some very serious research, in her work for the yearbook staff.

Activities

If it weren't for the activities offered at Loara, school life would be a lot less interesting. It could be a championship determining basketball game, a parade competition for the band, or even something as simple as an afternoon meeting of the photo club that kept many students on their toes.

Wasn't it exciting to see the same girl who sits across from you in geometry dancing up a storm during the half-time show of the football game? Did going up to the snow with the members of the ski club help you get to know any of them better? Did it help you get to know yourself better? It was certainly a change to see teachers doing something enjoyable outside of the classroom.

Did you ever stay after school so long to do something that by the time you left the entire school was quiet and deserted? Wasn't that an eerie feeling?

Getting involved was also a fool proof way of meeting people.

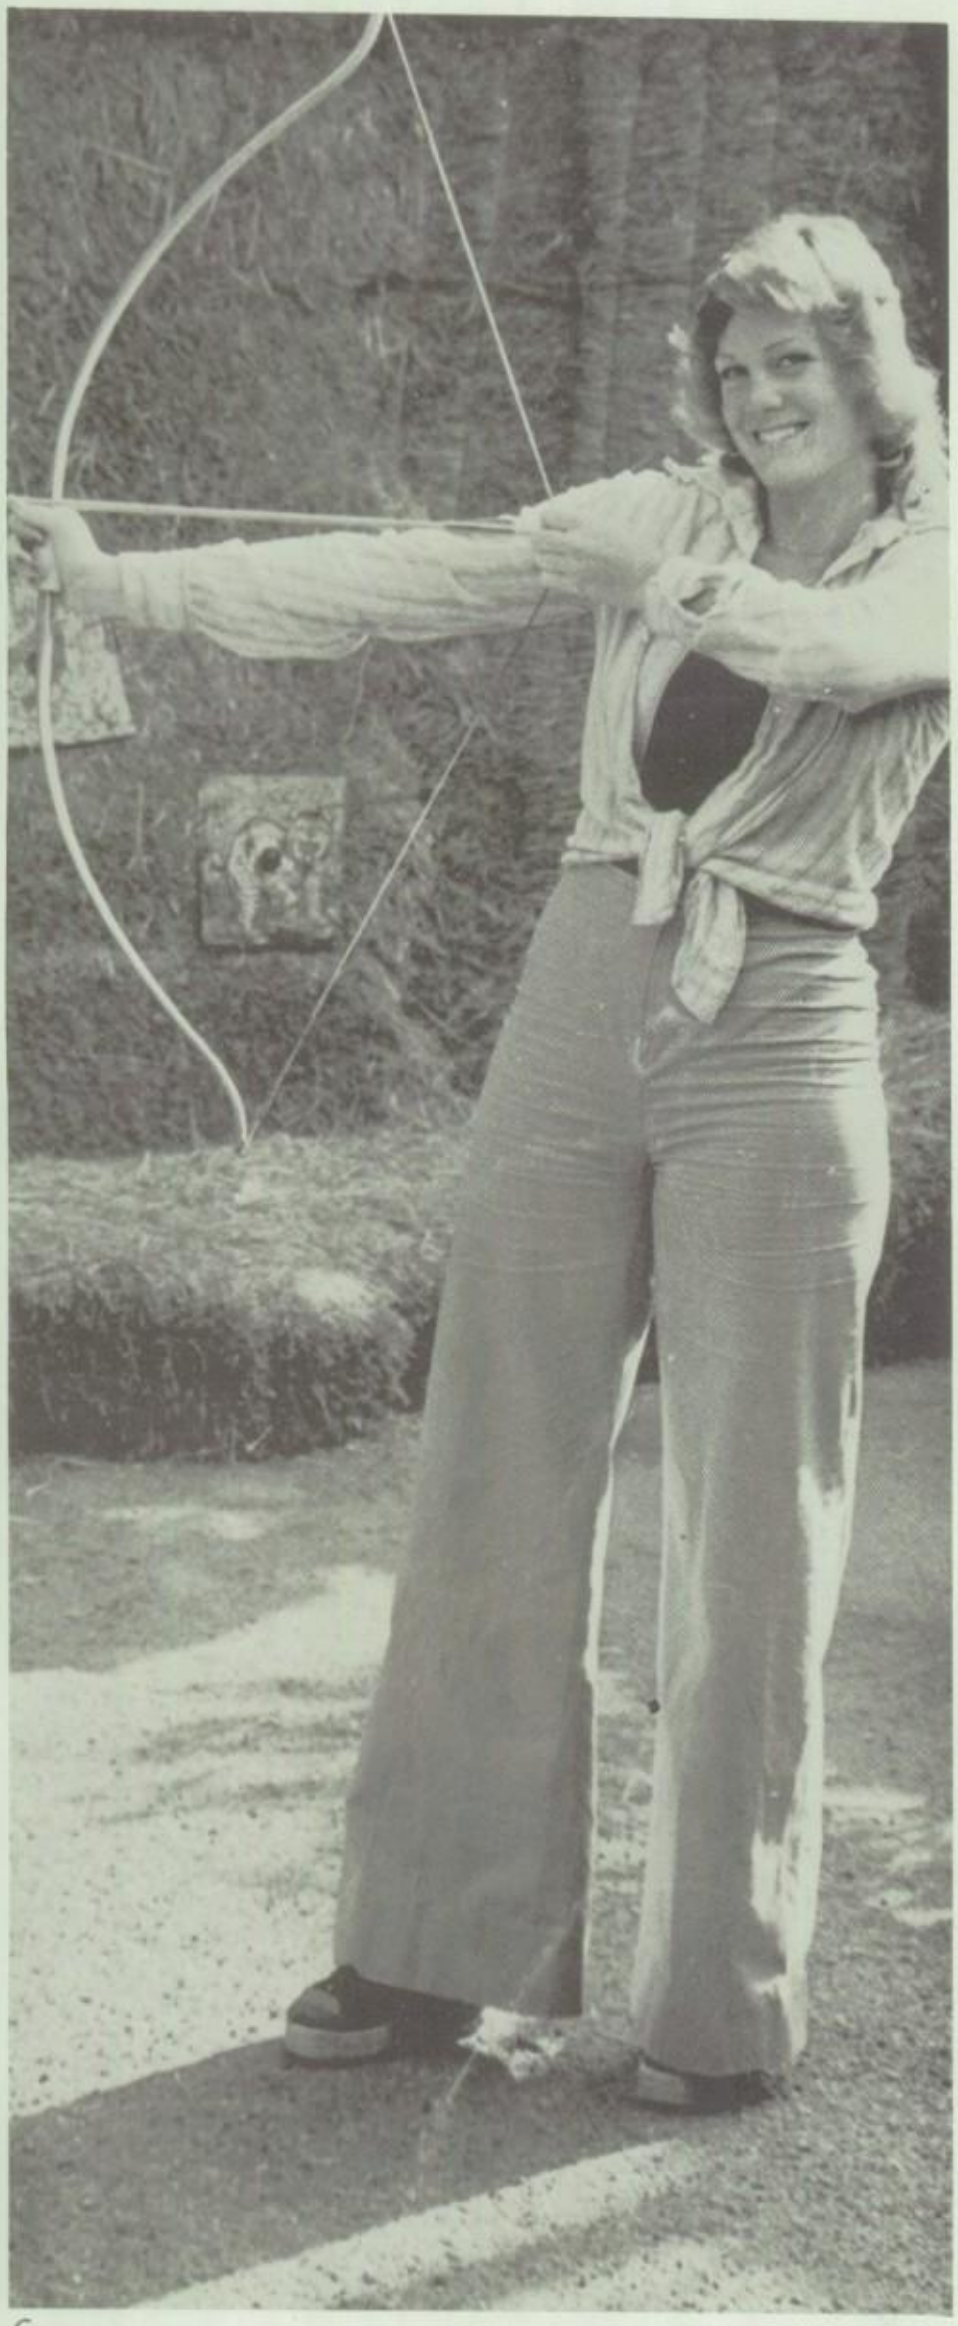
People At Work



Student influence determines much

Students elected by their fellow classmates were major decision makers concerning school activities. This year's job was not at all easy but the 1977-78 A.S.B. cabinet planned, organized and ran many activities. It took a lot of time and dedication to make the year the success it was.

The leader of cabinet, Kathleen Morse, the first female student body president in Loara's history and the second president in her family, led the way for the year.

Most students do not see how much business the cabinet does every day. This year's accomplishments included the rebuilding of the ticket booth in the center of campus, planning spirit days, planning pep assemblies and furnishing funds for student needs.

Festive student activities went over well as proven by the success of the film showing of "Fat City" and the Friday night "Disco Dimensions" dance. Overall the activities of the 1977-78 school year were great and much thanks goes to the work of the A.S.B. cabinet.

1. Making new friends in Ghost Town are A.S.B. Secretary, Josie O'Brien; A.S.B. President, Kathleen Morse; and A.S.B. Treasurer, Carrie Hoffman.
2. A.S.B. Vice President, Steve Hillig, helps lead cabinet in daily chores.
3. 1977-78 A.S.B. Cabinet: Top — A.S.B. Treasurer, Carrie Hoffman; A.S.B. President, Kathleen Morse; Activities Commissioner, Paul Beale; Sophomore President, Alan Scearce; Clubs to Council, Jade Pyle; A.S.B. Secretary, Josie O'Brien; S.A.B./C.A.S.C. Representative, Terri Oppelt; Forums and Issues, Scott Angotti; Communications, Darlene Nielsen; Campus beautification, Gladys Roble; E.C.A.R., Ellen Bandemer; Pep commissioner, Sylvia Medina. Junior President, Dena Condon; Senior President, Chris Walker; P.T.A. Representative, Denise Stephens; Publicity Commissioner, Donna Lussier.
4. Sophomore President Alan Scearce joy rides at Knotts Berry Farm.
5. Junior, Ellen Bandemer and Seniors, Sylvia Medina, Donna Lussier and Paul Beale are shown by the mountain range at Knotts.
6. "On Target," Kathleen Morse aims for a successful term in office.

Many improvements distinguish year

Improvements over last year added to the success of the student store or The Mace. They were more successful than last year.

They have gotten in many more items, which is improving the student store. They have bought a new coke machine, microwave, stereo, and also to protect the store from its plague of burglaries, an alarm system.

Leading the students for the past seven years has been Mr. Smith. He has enjoyed what he has done and the students enjoyed working with him.

Bob Mosier, manager, liked working with Mr. Smith very much and you saw him last year asking, "May I help you?" with a smile. Assisting Bob in some decisions was Leann Cordill, assistant manager.

Scheduled to work once a week, the student store staff didn't complain because they liked working there. The staff gets paid minimum wage for their work, during lunch and nutrition. The student store staff also serves the night classes at Loara.

With what the student store staff this year has been able to provide, it will make next year's staff jobs easier and they will be more efficient.

Thank you student store for all the service you have given to all of us!

Interaction highlights year

Deadlines were the terror of the newspaper staff who distributed 10 newspapers and a 16 page magazine called the Interaction 3 during the '78 school year. The paper was informative, current, and something that most of the students enjoyed.

Heading the staff this year as Editor-in-Chief was senior, Howard Sklar. Associate Editor was junior Terry Becker. The Saxon Shield staff included 10 people and many turned out stories of information ranging from the art of toilet papering, rock music reviews, sports, and events happening around the school. Editorials expressed controversies between members of the student body in every paper. The Interaction 3 centered around nostalgia of Loara High School this year.

Ms. Keni Christensen has been advisor of the Shield for 3 years and without her they would not have survived.

Traditional cover big decision of staff

Among the many things treasured from high school is the yearbook. The '78 Seaxe was one of the top yearbooks in the country this year.

Some of the encountered problems were meeting the deadlines, being imaginative and precise.

In making of the cover it was decided by the staff to use a traditional cover using modern concepts and the mighty fighting Saxon.

The yearbook staff contained 19 people in it this year. Advisor was Keni Christensen and without her this book would not have been possible.

Musicians "feelin' stronger every day"

"Rocky," "Bolero," "Caravan," "Big Spender" and their finale, "Star Wars" became the program called "Journey through Sound." This was one of the great field shows planned and devised by Rick Marino with the assistance of George Beyer.

Leading the "Show Band of the Western States," Drum Major Greg Panagos led the Loara Saxon Band through another successful year carrying titles throughout the state. Band is known for its performance, variety, and quality.

Hard work and devotion brought about generous results with first-place trophies at the Escondido Tournament of Bands, the Southland Band Tournament, the C.S.U. Long Beach Competition and the Arcadia Band Review. Second place was earned at the Azusa Band Competition.

Band would not have been organized without the band board which met once a week. President this year was Dave Forster; Vice President, Brad Balen; Secretary, Judy Hoffman; Treasurer, Mark Wadleigh; Librarians, Valerie Burdick and Janet English; Publicity, Kevin Ross; Historian, Sue Fleming; Uniform and Equipment managers, Steve Manasevit and Craig Mclaughlin. These people went to the parades and made things run smoothly.

A September trip to San Francisco to perform at the Raiders-49ers halftime and the October 2 half-time show at the Coliseum highlighted the year.

1. Todd Rock looks a bit uncomfortable at the early morning field practice while carrying the bass drum.
2. Accepting the trophies at the Arcadia Drill Team Specialty were Cheryl Cerny, Greg Panagos, and Anna Seiders.
3. Hurrying along to make preparations for the halftime at the Coliseum was Rick Marino.
4. Greg Panagos displays his talent commanding the band during the halftime.
5. George Beyer checks out saxophone before the show begins.
6. Caught in the act was Ron Keimach during early morning field practice.

Sweepstakes mark successful year

"Forward March" was a familiar sound during early morning practice for the Valkyries. And true to tradition they were on top again in 1977-78. Not only were they lovely but winners, too. Among their victories were sweepstakes at Escondido, sweepstakes at Azusa and sweepstakes at Southland.

Their awards were well deserved. The devoted leaders included recalls, Carol Grenier, junior and Bonnie Tatting, senior; second assistant, Freida Runge, senior; first assistant, Laurie Hoffart, senior; and most important one of all, head leader, Cheryl Cerny.

A new addition to drill team was Mrs. Cindy Hoffman the capable, new advisor. She herself was a member of the Valkyries a few years ago. With her she brought a lot of new things, one of them was a baby girl born in October.

In their routines were some of the old standards but an added touch this year was a nostalgic trip back to the "Happy Days" of the 50's.

Courtiers in a class by themselves

"Rock Around the Clock" was a high point of the Courtier season. It was performed only once at the Katella game which we won 16-0. It gave the Courtiers a chance to show off.

This year the Courtiers were judged in a class by themselves. At Southland they won a $150 check and a plaque. Also they won Sweepstakes at Azusa.

Behind the scenes making important decisions were President, Debbie Ginther, Senior; Vice-President, Dvora Jacobs, Senior; Secretary, Lisa Rehm, Junior; Treasurer, Linda Grant, Junior. Taking full responsibility for making up the routines were head leader Anna Seiders; Senior and assistant leader Lori Shook, Junior.

"Show band of the west" . . . marches on

The working season actually began before school started. The band and courtiers attended a camp in Ojai, which combined discipline and organization into a successful unit. Their devotion and pride led to a rewarding season. The hard work put in at early-morning practice, and after-school rehearsal paid off.

Organizing the equipment were Steve Bergschneider, junior; Scott Strayer, junior; Paul Goslin, junior; and Ed Pace,sophomore.

Vocalists motivated by trip to England

"People need models, not critics," was the motto of this year's Chamber Singers. Their musical program of the year was titled "Showin' Around." The main goal of the year was to take the trip to England. Among the many things to finance this trip to the countries of England, Wales, Scotland, and Ireland the Chamber Singers sponsored Vince Rosa in a Tribute to Elvis," sold Christmas candy, and ran a Jog-a-thon.

Their many concerts of the year included the November 17 concert at the Anaheim Stadium for the people of Mito, Japan, the December 8 concert, "Caroling Around," the February "Poppin' Around," the trip on Memorial Day weekend in May to San Francisco, and at the end of the school year the trip to England. The good reputation that the Chamber Singers have developed for many years has made people ask them to return to perform.

President of Chamber Singers this year was Doug Hampton; Vice President, Jeff Barr; Secretary, Jeannie Hodge; Treasurer, Kim Skorich; Historian, Mark Olson; Publicity, Tami Morris; Manager, Nancy Martin. These people helped the group get organized and made the concerts and trips run smoothly.

Schantz awarded crown in two day celebration

Sara Schantz was crowned queen of the 1977-78 Homecoming celebration marking a high point of the festivities Friday, Oct. 21. Other highlights included the faculty skit and the pep assembly.

The football game with the victorious Saxons beating the Kennedy Irish with a score of 28-21, Saturday night. To end the celebration impressively the senior class sponsored the homecoming dance, held at the Marriott Hotel in Newport with music by Starblind under the theme of "Visions and Dreams."

Homecoming was a great success, there was participation from everyone, even from alumni from years past, including last year's pep squad.

1. Police Science member, Robyn Dubach was a senior princess.
2. Senior princess Carol Krutcik was a songleader last year.

"Visions and Dreams" inspire Loara

At the pep assembly the faculty performed as the fighting Irish who, with the help of a "secret weapon," tried to overtake the Saxons. Boom Boom Dahlem made his/her annual appearance as "the biggest courtier of them all," which climaxed the assembly.

That night at the half-time show the band played, and everything stopped; and the red carpet was rolled out. The homecoming court made its appearance.

First came Linda Emond, last year's queen, followed by the sophomore attendent, Sandy Didonato and junior attendent, Denise Stephens. Then came the queen candidates, Robyn Dubach, Carol Krutcik, Sylvia Medina and Sara Schantz. The crowd paid full attention as announcer Chris Walker revealed Sara Schantz as the 1977-78 queen.

Loara Is No. 1!

Spirit raisers go co-ed

A new tradition was made for Loara this year by the 1977-78 Pep Club. Led by Sylvia Medina, Pep Commissioner, Pep Club had the largest membership and participation than ever before in Loara's history. Keeping the spirit was not left to the girls for many new members of Pep Club were guys, who were members of the varsity teams themselves. Pep Club kept busy all year round with megaphone and pep ribbon sales and special sale of pee-wee footballs for Homecoming '77. The highlight and best activities of the year were the secret pals for every sport. During secret pals week, varsity team members were showered with gifts and goodies to give them energy in the big game.

A big help to Pep Club were the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders who supported all the Junior Varsity teams. Led by Dayna Kowata and Advisor Alex Wampler, the group was very organized and things ran smoothly. Painting signs, making locker favors, and keeping a smile were just a few things the J.V. Cheer did all year round, but everything that did happen was greatly appreciated by all.

Innovation, tradition spark pep squads

Jungle Love with caveman outfits and Splish-Splash were performed in honor of Fifties Day. These were just a couple of the new dances brought out by the 1977-78 Songleaders. There were also the traditionals, Make Me Smile and Combination with the cheerleaders.

It's not all fun and games to be a songleader, but the 1977-78 Squad sure made it appear that way. A year full of sign painting, baking, and practices proved to be a great success and worth all the effort. Most impressive this year were the many different dances performed. New music and new routines kept the audiences at full attention.

Assemblies weren't the only place that songleaders were seen. They appeared at most every sports event cheering our teams on to victory. Between sports events, practices, and pep assemblies, the squad still found time for themselves with pre-game dinners and just goofing around together. All in all it was a busy, exciting, and rewarding year for the group and with the help of their Advisor, Miss Alex Wampler, it ran quite smoothly.

Student involvement goal of pep squad

Spirit and talent were the main ingredients of the 1977-78 Varsity Cheerleaders. Led by head cheerleader Vickie Pipes and advisor Alix Wampler, they helped raise the spirit at Loara. They kept busy learning new cheers and stunts to entertain crowds at sports events and assemblies. Many hours were spent preparing "goodie" boxes and locker favors for members of the Saxon Varsity teams. A big challenge of this year's squad was getting the audience's 100% involvement and participation.

1. A meeting of the minds were for songleader Kristin Nielsen and cheerleader Vickie Pipes.
2. The varsity cheerleaders were seen clowning around again.
3. Singing the alma mater were the varsity song and cheerleaders.
4. Getting ready for the final point were the excited varsity cheerleaders.
5. Under an umbrella were Denise Langner, Stacy Farrell, and Danette Morris.
6. Liz Schultz appears excited over a score made by the basketball team.
7. Miss Alix Wampler, advisor of the pep squads was seen in one of her classes.
8. Cheerleader Stacy Farrell was happy over the football team getting a goal.

Hats, ties class colors show spirit of the day

Spirit! Where was it found? How about on Loara's own campus during the first week of March? A few brave students had the courage to dress up on the first day, which was called "Sports day." At lunch John Strazicich appeared in a pro skateboard flick.

This year's spirit week started on Tuesday, March 7, because of lack of interest on Mondays. As the week went on, more and more students dressed up. A real tough dress up day was Hat and Tie day. That's when the girls knew what agony boys go through wearing ties.

Next, came the annual Sadie Hawkins day. This had to be the best turnout of crazy outfits.

And to end this terrific and spirited week the three classes competed by wearing class colors (seniors, red and white; juniors, blue; and sophomores, green.) Also, at lunch, the powderpuff teams were honored at the pep assembly and the guys ranged from courtiers to songleaders. This pep assembly is always the best.

To start the weekend off right the girls were supposed to take their sweethearts to the Sadie Hawkin's dance then from there they could get hitched and possibly divorced. All in all, that week was looked forward to by everyone.

1. Laurie Vanaken quarterback explains to the defensive line the next play to wipe out the juniors.
2. Julie Bader and Stacy Ball pose for a photograph for Hat and Tie day.
3. "Reverend" Dave Nelson does honors for Paul Beale, Senior, and alumnus Linda Kirkpatrick.
4. Many efforts were taken to boost the spirit of the students.
5. Doing a popular flag routine senior Glenn Parry shows much spirit and enthusiasm.

Senior "gridders" win powderpuff

"Go Seniors" and "Juniors Rule" were very common sounds around Loara during Spirit week.

Despite a threat of cancellation because of rain, the annual Powderpuff game went on.

Practices were short and plays had to be learned very quickly, not to mention cheers and routines for the guys! One week of practice proved to be enough though for the mighty senior girls to pull a victory from behind to beat the Juniors 13-6.

Heading the Senior girls were head coach: Craig Weissman and assistant coaches, Doug Drainville, Phil Busch, Bob Tally and Chuck Winkle. They coached the great talents of the Seniors.

Coaching the Junior side were Chuck Hinman, Dave Nieto and Robby Grant.

1. Leading the senior offensive line was Toni Pugliese.
2. Chris Walker (alias Pep Commissioner) introduces the song and cheerleaders.
3. The senior powderpuff head coach Craig Weissmann makes a very rousing speech to scare the junior girls.
4. The varsity cheerleaders and songleaders were Kevin Haggard, Bryan Bodine, Bob Roberts, Mike Bonnaud, Mike Biehl, Scott Gordon, John Summers, Steve Hillig, Jeff Fuller, Drew Zager, Tony Carr, and Jim Lydon.
5. Doing football exercises the senior girls really got into it.
6. The junior powderpuff girls wait anxiously for their secret pals, who gave them candy and other goodies.

San Fran trip adds excitement to year

San Francisco was the highlight of the year for the chamber choir. They practiced many long and hard hours to perfect their performances. To start their season they appeared at the annual "Holiday in Music," in which they performed many Christmas tunes. Just before Christmas holidays they went carolling at the Anaheim Mall.

Starting off the new year, the chamber choir performed at a pop concert in the middle of February, and they hosted a musical at Loara.

To help organize all these excursions were Karen Webb, president; Robin Joyner, vice-president; and Chris Beck as secretary/treasurer.

A few of those talented individuals were selected to attend the trip to England with the chamber choir. The trip to England was the ending event of the very productive and rewarding season for the choir.

1. Chamber choir has an informal practice around the piano.
2. Jeannie Cryer is being put into her place by Julie Stamp.
3. Fran Longo and Vincent Jones get in order for the picture.
4. Art Castillo lends a "helpful" hand to Bill Lyman.
5. Among the crowd Mitch Vance prays for a good rehearsal.

Novice singers in performances

New choir! For the first time in Loara's history we acquired the new Sophomore Choir. Sophomore students from Trident and Ball auditioned, and 40 of the top students were selected. This class was taught by Miss McMahon, a student teacher from Cal State Fullerton. They performed in the Christmas Concert at Loara, and also sang in Holiday in Music at the Convention Center. Some soloists from this choir were able to participate in the Pop Concert in February.

The Vocal Ensemble was primarily for students who hadn't any experience in music. Most of their time was spent on learning how to appreciate music. At the second semester the 3rd period Ensemble advanced to the Vocal Jazz Ensemble class, and the 5th period Ensemble became the Musical Productions Class. The Musical Productions Class was responsible for putting together the school musical "Carousel", which was held in May.

The Sophomore Choir also helped in the calendar sales and the candy sales. Few that were excellent had been selected to tour with the older choirs. For a new choir they sure had a good start.

World premiere shows creativity and talent

"Peanuts Gang" was a success and played before a full house audience for 6 nights. The play was directed and adapted by Ms. Susan Semegran, a teacher in the Placentia School District. The cast of eight were from the Music-Box Players. They included Charlie Brown, Bob Mosier; Lucy, Tammie Francoeur; Schroeder, Bruce Burton; Snoopy, Doug Jockinsen; Sally, Lynn Adams; Frieda, Mary Price; Linus, Michael Adams; Peppermint Patty, Corine Cook.

This play was a musical with lyrics written by Susan Semegram. Music, choreography, and talent really made this play and the audience proved this.

Clubs on campus spark special interest

On our campus there were many clubs of all interests to join. People were interested in Art, Bowling, Photography, Police Science, and the French Language. Girls that were into sports joined G.A.A. Loara offered an assortment of clubs, and most of them have been very active this past year.

Among them were the Loara Bowlers who on every Tuesday, after school, went to the Linbrook Bowl to play in tournaments. The leaders of this fine club were President, Mike Poulin; Vice President, Judy Berry; Secretary-Treasurer, Alan Todd. Some of these people have been very high scorers. Advisor of this very active club was Mr. Hank Denny.

People who were interested in Art should check into the Art Club. This past year hasn't been an active one, but the Art Sale held in December proved successful. The sale featured art objects that the students made themselves. Purchases of macrame, ceramic pots, and drawings were seen around campus. Officers of this interesting club were President, Cathy Hall; Vice President, Faith Matheson; Secretary, Jan Weeks; Treasurer, Paula Neisen; Show Chairman, Jeff Antoine. Advisor this year of the Art Club was Mr. Bill Ahlvers.

1. Returning from a bowl was Jeff Eagan with a disappointed look.
2. Steve Coombes looks troubled after bowling a spare.
3. Bowlers were getting ready for the match with warm-ups.
4. Advisor, Mr. Denny looks back while waiting for the ball to return.
5. Art Club of 1977-78. Secretary, Jan Weeks; Vice President, Faith Matheson; Show Chairman, Jeff Antoine; Treasurer, Paula Neisen; Advisor, Mr. Ahlvers. Not Shown: Cathy Hall, President.
6. Steve Deraddo and Dean Kakuda wrote down scores during a match.
7. The 1977-78 Bowling Club had a very active year.
8. Concentrating for the final bowl was Fred Bretz.

Shutter happy or are you a sports buff?

Girls' sports are no longer in the closet. This past year there have been more girls participating in sports than most years. Girls are now considered to be athletes, too. G.A.A. was headed by President Leslie Abbott and Vice President Sara Schantz. G.A.A. promoted girls' athletics more than ever. The activities this past year included a candy sale with the profits going toward the end-of-the-year banquet. Advisor this year was Ms. Kay Malucky.

Cameras and a talent for taking pictures were part of being in the photo club. Many of the members entered photo contests this past year. Advisor was Mr. Lockridge.

Food, field trips interest members

Ask a French Club member what they think about it and they might say: "It's fun, but it sure adds inches around the tum!" Why? They had a Christmas Dinner, a Thanksgiving Pot-luck, a Crepe Party, an Easter Dinner, and the famous Banquet. The money raised through various sales went to pay for the banquet, which was held at the Lafayette. Advisor Madame Ray certainly deserves the best. Leading the club was president, Nancy Mitchell, vice president, Valerie Burdick and secretary-treasurer, Blair Caugherty. Purpose of the French Club? One member, Greg Evans, stated: "To further orientate the student with the cultural atmosphere of France and the French people." They certainly accomplished that!

Another big club was the Police Science Club. Basically, it raised money for the class itself, for field trips and rental of films. They had a licorice sale, and sponsored the Dodger-Faculty basketball game. Field trips included a visit to Chino Prison, Los Angeles Criminal Court Building, and to the Orange County Sheriffs Academy. This year's officers were: Joyce Cleaver, president; vice president, Dino Ryan; secretary, Chris Cox; and treasurer, Robyn Dubach.

Girls' League starts new Saxon tradition

During the 1977-78 school year, Girls' League, led by President Diane Akers and Co-President Kathy Sado, went well with the aid of advisors Mrs. Laura Moore and Mrs. Nancy Kahaukawila. Starting a new Saxon tradition at the Winter Formal dance, both kings and queens were awarded honors. Making the evening just as glamorous for the guys as well as the girls was a great task.

Girls' League, the only service club on campus, kept busy all year. The See's Candy sucker sale was a success and showed a profit.

1. Sophomore Lucy Soler was caught looking at the camera during a meeting.
2. Giving ideas for the decorations was Mrs. Moore, the Girls' League Advisor.
3. Listening contently at meetings was Co-Advisor Mrs. Kahaukawila.

Academics challenge diverse individuals

Academics was one of Loara's finest attributes since the majority of the student body was college bound. Many of these academic organizations and clubs encourage the students to try just a bit harder.

National Honor Society was a club for the seniors with a 3.0 grade point average or above. The officers of this year's NHS were President, Lorrie Gray, Vice President, Linda Boulanger, Secretary, Lynn Cornelius, Treasurer, Margie Beale. Advisor for this academic society was Miss Mary King.

Kiwanis Bowl was an organization which many of the students weren't informed about. This club studies trivia and other paraphernalia-like facts about science, sports, records held, and mathematics. People in this organization have to be on their toes constantly to be able to answer the questions asked. These dedicated students met every day after school to practice questions and their answers. Advisors were Mr. Jack Mitchell and Mr. Cliff Rothrock.

6. At a breakfast that the Kiwanis Clubs of Anaheim sponsored, Craig Jackman and Paul Gossiln enjoy themselves.

G.P.A. and I.Q. high scorers get organized

Programs like the M.G.M. organization promoted the campus academics. M.G.M. (Mentally Gifted Minors) was a school organization which chose its members. The students selected have I.Q.'s of high degree. Many students were chosen this year and it is indeed an honor to be a member of this club. Advisors of this organization this year were Mrs. Dorothy Paridon and Mr. Barry Escoe.

C.S.F. (California Scholarship Federation) was another club which chose its members. A total of seven points in any academic subjects would qualify the student. An additional three points plus a 3.5 grade point average is needed to be in this club. Advisors for this club were Mr. Norm Fried and Mr. Larry Klevos.

In me you see the glowing of such fire
You quench my everlasting desire
My love for you is a million times the amount of raindrops
Now that my love has begun I could never stop
I love you more than any sum
Our life-paths have intersected and become one
From this day on we will live our lives together and reach for the sun.

As I sit and think of days gone by,
the memories come flooding back,
like a raging river, filling my mind with memories of yesterday

Time seemed to pass so rapidly, placing me in a distant world,
but yet the symbols remain so fresh and clear. They beckon me to go back in time, just for a moment, to recall and remember.

I become aglow with the many trying,
but happy memories of my past
only to be faced with my life today, the goals I have set, and future that awaits me.

I sadly leave my past behind me and surge forward toward tomorrow, knowing I will always have my past, like a good friend, to reminisce with about the memories of yesterday.

What's Happened?

Tutmania invades southern California

Many things were going on this past school year. There were some deaths among well-known celebrities. Elvis Presley was one of them. When he was reported dead, the world went through a turmoil. He attracted audiences that ranged from the older generation to the teenyboppers. Bing Crosby, star of "White Christmas" also died. His tenor croon was heard far and wide every Christmas.

Fleetwood Mac's "Rumours" album broke the all time record and outsold Carole King's "Tapestry" album. The Bee Gees had five pop singles in the top 40 at once. The original soundtracks to "Saturday Night Fever" features their talents as a group.

"Star Wars" broke office records and grossed the most money in the movie industry, surpassing "Jaws." The science fiction flick grossed a total of $400,000,000 at the time of this publication.

Tutmania was in the air as thousands of people lined up in the various department stores and ticketron agencies to see the 55 piece exhibit. The treasure was discovered in 1923 by Professor Howard Carter. The exhibit includes the Death Mask worn by Tutankhamun and many of his favorite things.

The world of people had many changes. John Travolta transformed from sweathog to king pin at the local disco. Mark Hamil, who was out of the movie circulation briefly, went on to be the hero in "Star Wars" with Carrie Fisher and Harrison Ford co-starring. Top Model Cheryl Tiegs made the cover of "Time" magazine. Earlier in 1978 Senator Hubert Humphrey died after a long fight against cancer. Also Terry Kath, lead singer of the group Chicago died due to the result of a gun accident. Bubbles the hippo died in a lake outside the Lion Country Safari Park when she surfaced and was shot with tranquilizers.

Hit movies center on space fantasy

Smash hit movies centered around science fiction. "Star Wars" and "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" were two of the headliners. Other great flicks included "Julia," "Turning Point," and "The Goodbye Girl." "Coma" was a new movie and proved to be a continuation of the gross, terror movies which instill fear into the general public. Discoes went into action partly as a result of the popular movie "Saturday Night Fever." The academy sure had an array from which to choose from.

Other shows that were big successes were "Beatlemania," "A Chorus Line," and "Man of La Mancha." The California Jam 2 featured the talents of "Aerosmith," "Ted Nugent," "Dave Mason," "Bob Welch," "Foreigner," "Heart," "Rubicon," "Santana," and "Mahogeny Rush."

Out in TV land, programs like Class of '65, Three's Company, Eight Is Enough, and James at 16 taught us about family lifestyle and living today.

Jogging was in with skateboarding forever rising. The New York Yankees beat out the Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Winter in '77 was good to us and skiers were hitting it strong. There was talk of the Rams moving to Anaheim and the Olympics being held in L.A. After defeating Mohammed Ali, Leon Spinks was defending heavyweight champion.

The weather was great for a brief period, but the rain that was dumped on us also dumped some houses. The total number of inches at one point was 30.8 inches. There was more snow and it was a skiers paradise in the mountains. The scientists now felt that the drought was officially over.

Science made some advances with the Shuttlecraft and the Concorde was found to make too much noise.

Anwar Sadat held his Israeli Peace Talks. The dollar shrunk again and it seemed that no one wanted it except the starving students. The police caught the Son of Sam killer, but the Hillside Strangler was still on the loose.

At school, the students went through a possible teacher strike and sophomore testing. Clothes around campus featured boots and jeans that cost $30.00 with sequins on the back pockets. Some of the girls received Lettermen jackets and the school put up a new marquee. Sammy Saxon was painted gold too.

Academics

Next to your parents, your high school teachers are probably the most influential adults you'll know during your teenage years.

You'll notice that each teacher has a different style of teaching. Some will have you taking notes all period. Others assign projects that involve a lot of time and effort. Still others are known for showing numerous films and filmstrips. All of this depended on what kind of class it was in the first place.

Did you have easy-going teachers? Many were known for sharing stories and jokes with the class. And they were good sports, too. It takes nerve to perform, like some teachers do, in front of a "standing room only" crowd at a pep assembly.

Loara's teaching staff is made up of many intelligent and informative people. They were there to help you learn. Did you have a special teacher with whom you could share your thoughts?

This was the year that education went "back to basics," making sure that the first year students knew their reading, writing and arithmetic good enough to go on to other things. And the battle over contracts was still being fought between the Board of Education and the district's teachers.

Teachers focus on basic skills

Starting in February of this year all incoming sophomores must take and pass a basic proficiency test to qualify for graduation. In order to prepare for the testing and go along with the general swing of education, the English department has focused on a more extensive and intensive coverage of basic composition and grammar skills. But, somehow the individuals that make up the English and Reading departments have managed to add a few teaspoons of sugar to help all this medicine go down. Mary King, for example, makes reading applicable to students lives by offering specific instruction on how to read a recipe, fill out a job application, and interpret consumer education. Also, a wide variety of English electives are offered where a student can learn from the experiences of Lord and Lady Macbeth as well as those of Winnie the Pooh and Tigger.

1. "All the world's a stage . . . and each man plays many parts." Keith Huffman, as Mr. Shakespeare, Department Chairman, and the ghost of Hamlet's father, plays them well and seems to enjoy it.
2. In Mark Twain, Mike Rowe and his students naturaly discuss the sexual variancy of Huckleberry Finn.
3. Promoting intellectual curiosity in his students, Larry Klevos is often surprised by the results.
4. English teacher Jane Davis offers students a mode of escape in her fantasy class.
5. "I haven't been disappointed" says Stanley Douglas, a new addition to the English department from Anaheim High.

Students open doors to a new world.

Math and Science were tough solids that are required at Loara, but whenever we were in doubt or frustrated, the teacher in these departments were there to pull us through. Each of them had their own individual teaching tools that brought us a smile or two during some frustrating times.

Remember Mr. Crilly's stick men? Number 17? Or anxiously awaiting to see the jokes on Mr. Young's assignment sheets? How about Mr. Schelske's story of how to remember the scientific name of a silverfish? All of these are small memories that we'll take as we leave Loara and behind it all will be the thought of the teachers who cared enough to think these things up to help us through our toughest classes.

1. Science teacher, Leroy Schelske takes some time to grade weekly summaries.
2. Mr. Stout searches eagerly for someone who can correctly answer one of his questions.
3. Oh, those dreaded story problems! Mr. Crilly desperately tries to reach students through his famous "stick" drawings.
4. Ouch! Chemistry teacher, Mr. Bajema demonstrates just how hot those bunsen burners really are.
5. Snails?? Whenever things go wrong, Mr. McCourry can always take time to explain why your plants won't grow.
6. Keep Smiling! Some students could always use that extra attention in math. and Mr. Traw happily gives it to them.

Who is this guy, Chester A. Arthur?

If you don't know, try asking around Loara's campus. You'll start some interesting conversations and get some different answers or maybe even questions — "Isn't he the man out there in the parking lot who checks for student stickers?" or "Don't you know?" or "Who really cares?"

But in your search for Chester A. Arthur don't overlook Richard A. Barron, or his students. Legally, a certain amount of social studies is mandatory for graduation, history, government A and B, but it's hard for a person to leave Loara without something more than his 20 credits. Whether it's a piece of trivia, a joke, or a friendship with a teacher, he'll remember it. "Hey, do you remember Douglas' imitations?" . . . "Did any of you guys ever hear Dahlem's zipper story?" . . . "Oh no, that sounds like a Cochrane joke!" . . . "Didn't it crack you up the first time Dorosky played Pomp and Circumstance for our tests, but man, every single test he played it." . . . "I'll never forget the time we papered Barron's house, wasn't he neat about it?" What will you remember? 20 credits on your transcripts, or Boom Boom at Homecoming?

1. Clyde Vineyard serves as living proof that the teachers' conference periods are used to their maximum potential.
2. John Douglas laughs at a joke in history . . . probably his own.
3. Rarely seen in the classroom is the fierce competitor in Dave Nelson; it's kind of hard to find on the court too.
4. Injured in the Dodger game, Dick Barron bravely carries on to educate his students — Chester would be proud.
5. Officer "Friendly" Jack Parra is swept off his feet by Cathy Hanson's self defense tactics in Police Science.

"My French classes? I adore them"

While not absolutely necessary to the teaching process, a warm relationship between a teacher and a student can really make a class.

If you ask Madame Genivieve Ray about her classes, she'll make her feelings very clear. She adores them. And rumor has it that the feeling is mutual.

Ask any kid in special education what he likes about it. If he answers, "Wamp" or "Pick," don't be confused. He's referring to Alix Wampler and Scott Pickler, two involved and personal Special Ed. teachers. But they're just as serious about goals for their kids as the strictest disciplinarians. Miss Wampler explains her goals to "help kids enjoy an improved self-concept through adjustments in social, emotional, and academic areas."

1. Studious seniors take advantage of the library facilities to study, research, and keep out of the rain.
2. One of Loara's most valuable players in the Faculty-Dodger game was #24, special education teacher, Scott Pickler.
3. A lot of students came in contact with Alix Wampler, either in Special Ed., tennis, song or cheer.
4. Petra Delaney taught both English and German this year.
5. In a survey of Loara's teachers, their most disliked duty was paperwork. Madame Ray keeps up with her's during her conference.
6. This year Spanish students and Sr. Parque faced the problems of mixed-class levels.

Discover something about yourself

Helping a student to discover something about himself or his world is one goal that Home Economics and Industrial Arts have in common. Both subjects are geared to prepare students with the skills and insights that are necessary for their future roles.

Both of these departments offer a wide variety of classes. Ind. Arts gives a chance to break away from academics and get into some wood working or maybe a little tinkering with cars.

Home Ec. offered three new classes including, Meals for Moderns, Food From the Caribbean Islands, and Foods From Many Lands. A consumer education class is also offered. This explores many areas of environmental living.

1. Mrs. Runge concentrates as she sews the last stitch of her latest creation.
2. Auto students, Rusty Frees and friend sometimes get to tinker with their own cars.
3. YUM Mrs. Judy Hotra can't wait to cook those goodies.
4. Pound 2 3 4 . . . Mr. Wilbur is always available to lend a helping hand.
5. Even Mrs. Runge enjoys doing a little needlecraft during her first-period class.
6. Ind. Arts gives students the chance to really get into things and this student doesn't seem to mind at all.

Unique contributions made by departments

Health and Business Education were two of the smaller departments on campus, but each made unique contributions.

Department chairperson Jim Allicotti and teacher Jackie Husband were very pleased with the positive attitude expressed by this year's health students.

For the first time sophomores were given contract sheets, and by the end of the class they were to have either broken a bad habit, submitted a report on a topic of interest, or invited a guest speaker.

Specialization was the key to Business Education. Specialized areas included typing, shorthand, accounting, checking and cashiering, business machines.

Margaret Batstone, nurse, enjoys helping students. She kept health records on each student and checked sight and hearing.

1. Business student, Tracey Harley, is busy "typing" on a typewriter that is unplugged.
2. Bored with accounting, Stephanie Bieker, looks through her purse.
3. Correcting typing papers keeps business teacher, Raleigh Hawk occupied.
4. Active senior, Kathy Sado, pauses to make business decisions.
5. Senior business student, Peggy Stuflick, hustles to get her classwork done.
6. The successful Dodgers proved too much competition for our studly faculty.
7. Checking a sophomore student's blood pressure is nurse Margaret Batstone.

Imagination, talent, creativity important

"Imagination is more important than knowledge," stated Einstein. Our art and music departments emphasized both, however.

Bill Ahlvers, who teaches leather and ceramics, focused on "excellence in construction of design," and was concerned about the "careless" attitude students reflect as a group.

Ron Tracy, department chairperson, organized a sculpture show at Chapman College, and hopes to hold a sculpture show at Loara.

John Woolf, head of the choral department, for the first time directed the "Holiday in Music" in December, and Chamber Choir worked toward a second trip to England.

On the instrumental side, Rick Marino and assistant George Beyer did more than direct street and field band. The jazz stage band and concert band classes added distinctly to the department.

1. Leading the class in songs is Choral Director John Woolf.
2. Doubling as Drum Major and stage band member is senior Greg Panagos.
3. Smile for the camera. Greg Smith pauses during band practice.
4. Shown throwing on the wheel is art teacher, Ron Tracy.

Students learn, yet 'have oodles of fun'

According to Coach Nedra Soos, what makes teaching so rewarding is seeing a group of kids trying, then suddenly watching it all click, and they can perform the skill. The kids have accomplished something.

Both our physical education and driver's education departments offer the students the opportunity to attempt a skill and then master it. This is what Coach Mike Pence, drivers education instructor, refers to as "self esteem through achievement."

Through this concept the students can get their minds off the mental stress which occurs in academics, social and family life and, as Coach Soos sums it up, "Have oodles of fun."

Efficiency is key to successful staff

Every department at Loara, principals, and counselors were backed by an efficient staff of secretaries. The paperwork involved in keeping Loara running smoothly was enormous. Becky Peterson, student accounting secretary, enjoys working with ASB Cabinet students ironing out the financial difficulties; she is extremely proud to work at Loara.

The carelessness of students during nutrition and lunch must be cleaned up, the disorderly classrooms after a day of school were all cleaned by our custodians.

Well prepared food and cheerful smiles from the four cafeteria women added to the lunch time enjoyment.

1. Cafeteria workers posed for the Seaxe. From left to right: Cloadella Darrington, Marie Kimmich, Cleo Merrill, Marge VanDorne.

Counselors' eyes on kids, low-flying birds

Incoming sophomores, hasseling the newness, bigness, and general red tape of a high school; juniors, finding themselves being shaken out of the false sense of security they had in being able to beat the system; and serious seniors, trying to find a way up and out of Loara and still trying to enjoy their last year, all ran to, ran from, or were summoned by the dreaded call slip to the office of the counselor.

Whatever a student's problem or goal, the counselor was the person that stood between him and the vast administrative network. The counseling staff tried to meet the needs of students and advise them on their academic and social goals, not to mention, keep them out of trouble.

Student counseling, though the major duty of the counselor, was accompanied by other responsibilities. Noted by Mr. LeGrand is the infamous duty at Lunch and Nutrition "where most of the counselors have been hit at least once by our flock of seagulls."

1. Nothing surprises Evelyn Hickey who has been here since Loara opened . . . well almost nothing.
2. Registrations, career counseling, and college preparations keep senior counselor John Valder on the go.
3. Despite the flood of paperwork and problems, Jim Le Grand keeps smiling. Some people worry about Mr. Le Grand.
4. The career office masterminded by Pat Lynch was a place to turn to during a senior's heavy decision making time of life.
5. Somehow Dorothy Paridon manages to find the time to get involved in French Club activities.

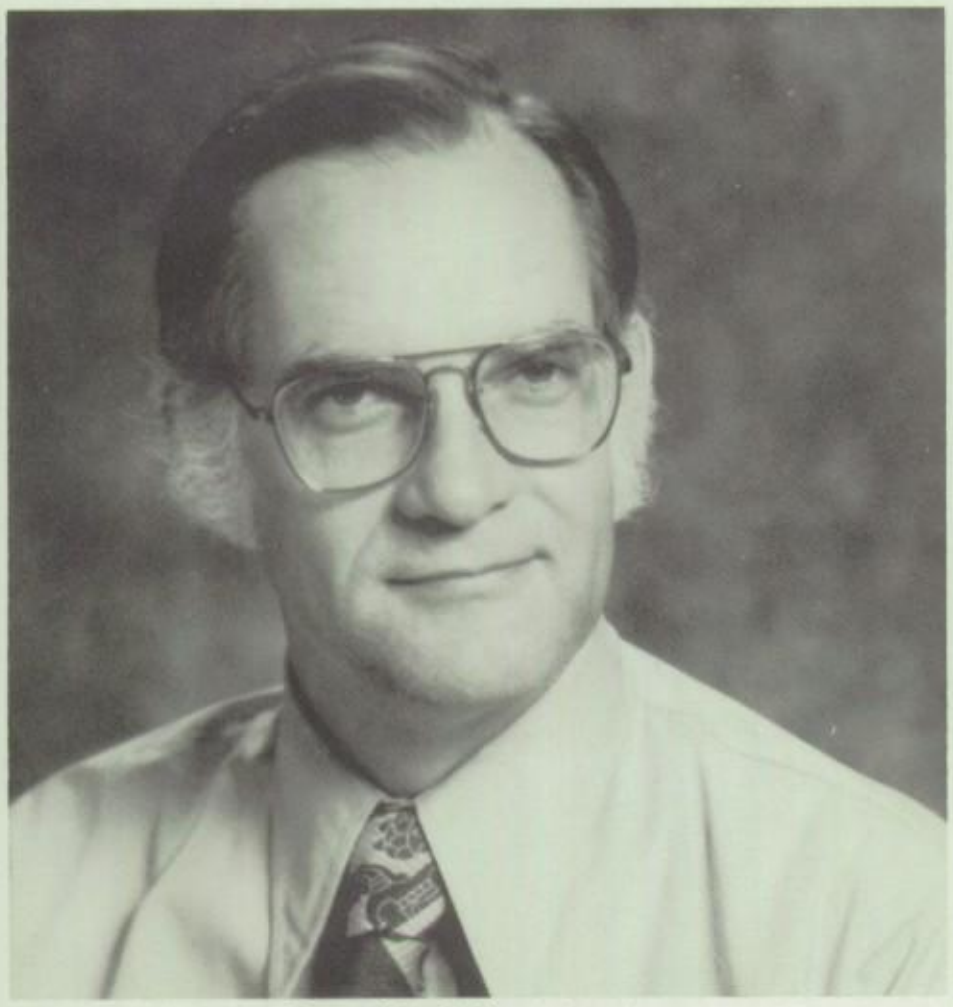
"We must encourage academic excellence, assist individuals . . ."



Gary Lindell Principal

Administering a school with 2,000 students and over 100 employees is the job that principal Gary Lindell must handle each day. Mr. Rothrock, Mr. Escoe, Mr. Weaver, and Mr. Dunn each assist our principal in keeping Loara going. As one of the few unit schools, Loara requires these men to care for each individual class. Mr. Rothrock summed it all up in these few words: "We must encourage academic excellence and also assist each member of their individual class to achieve a high school diploma by their graduating year."

Mr. Lou Dunn is the activities director, one of the most demanding jobs at Loara. He must also take control whenever a repair of any facility is needed. He manages to keep the physical aspects of Loara in shape all year long.

Declining enrollment caused certain conflicts that affected many administrators this year. This decline led to an academic shuffle. Due to administrative transfers, Mr. Weaver was placed as the assistant principal in the senior unit for two consecutive years.

These administrators have their assigned jobs and yet they do much more. Mr. Barry Escoe completed the master schedule this year, a task that many would rather avoid. In fact, many of the administrative jobs were taken for granted by the students. The jobs are completed promptly and without problems. Whether they knew it or not, we noticed.

Sports

Supported and respected to the utmost, Loara's athletes reigned supreme and mighty.

Practice and preparation were two things that helped make the "Saxon Machine" what it was. The countless hours spent after and before school, going over game plans again and again, and learning various techniques paid off in the end, or at least every time we had a victory.

And this year the importance of women's sports continued to grow. An equal amount of support from both men's and women's teams is not far away. After all, this year's pep club had a number of male members.

Were you part of the cheering crowds that led the athletes to victory? Did you go to home games and away games? Is your student body card full of tiny holes, proving your attendance at Loara's athletic games?

Support came from other areas, too. How many times was your name printed on the sports page of the Saxon Shield? Were you embarrassed or proud to hear your name over the morning announcements if you were a high scorer?

To the dedicated athletes, the gym, the field, the grueling hours of practice and the relationships with other team members will all be a part of their fondest memories.

5-0 record wins Empire League title

Empire league games were a breeze for the Saxon Football team. Facing tough opponents like Cypress and Los Alamitos, the Varsity team finished the league season with a record of 5-0.

With the defeat of Los Alamitos, Loara football earned the league title and a berth in the CIF playoff for the second year in a row.

Savanna proved to be a worth opponent for Loara during the first round competition. Saxons fought a long hard game but just couldn't pull it away. Savanna captured the game with a score of 17-6.

1. Quarterback Craig Weismann was chosen to the all Empire team for his performance throughout the year.
2. Concern is shown on the face of Saxon gridder Mike O'Brien during the Los Alamitos game.
3. Teamwork is the way the Saxons do everything, as shown here by Paul Felix, Jack Signoretti and Dave Nieto.

Talent, skill pay off in gridder action

Saddleback was number 3 when the Saxons has started to move. With two touchdowns during the game, defeat came easily for the Pioneers. Paul Felix was Saxon of the Week for his fine effort during the game.

Kennedy had the privilege of being number 4 as the Saxons downed the Irish, 27-14. This game marked the third homecoming win in a row for Loara. Glenn Gann was named Saxon of the Week.

Cypress, needless to say, was the third victim. With a score of 14-7, an outstanding performance was given by Jamie McCance during this game.

Los Alamitos was the team we had to beat to take the Empire League title, and with a score of 17-7, we did it. Mike O'Brien was chosen by his teammates to lead them into the next game for his role against Los Alamitos.

Katella was the final league game, and the Saxons finished their league record with the defeat of the Knights, to maintain their all win 5-0 record and a final season record of 6-3. Chuck Winkle was Saxon of the Week.

1. A driving force keeps senior Paul Felix on a steady course to the goal line.
2. Teamwork shows as fullback Kevin Haggard makes an opening for quarterback Craig Weissmann.
3. Moving Saddleback out of the way, Steve Cotaya makes sure there is enough room for a Saxon to get through.
4. It was a Saxon touchdown, the second in the game against Saddleback, won 14-0.
5. Coach Herb Hill studies the field and his play sheet to comprehend the next move of the game.
6. Tailback George Bridges gains some yards against the Katella Knights.
7. Quarterback Craig Weismann shows the hustling spirit, assisted by key blockers, Randy Budd and Kevin Haggard.

Steve Longo makes All-County honors

Three-year varsity team member, Steve Longo, was awarded All-County honors for his performance through-out the year. He was co-player of the year with Rick Senteno from the Los Alamitos team.

Junior Varsity football had a 2-2 season under the leadership of Coach Defries. The Junior Varsity team is combined with the Varsity team during the season.

With a 6-3 record, the sophomores handled their season with ease. Under the direction of Coach Dahlem and Coach Pence, the team showed much action on the field.

1. Sophomore action is shown as they go after their opposition.
2. Getting ready for the snap is Bill Smith and Scott Neal.

Hard Work sends waterpolo to CIF

To have their team go to CIF is every coach's dream. And this year Coach Jackie Husband and the Varsity Waterpolo team showed how it must be done. With many hours of grueling practice and many pre-league games any talented team can do the same. Coach Husband stated that the most memorable thing about Loara this year was, "Going to CIF on my birthday."

In the CIF playoffs, Edison held the Saxons to a one-point lead, but came back to tie the game 10-10. This sent the game into double overtime. In the first period each team scored one, but Edison came back to win 14-12.

1. Varsity goalie, Jon Summers, blocks one more shot to keep the Saxons ahead of Kennedy.
2. Dr. Pepper player of the year, Bernie Glasser, gets hassled by a defensive player.

Soph poloists show promise for next year

All summer Coach Husband put the varsity team through drills and offensive plays needed to defeat their opponents in the Empire League. Entering the team in summer leagues also gave the team some idea of what their performance level must be to win league.

Empire league was an easy victory for the Saxons after defeating Kennedy, 14-11 and Los Alamitos 13-10. Even though the Saxon Waterpolo team lost a very close match to Katella, 14-13, they still clenched the league title with a 4-1 league record. The Saxons gained the best record in the history of Loara High School Waterpolo.

Sophomores this year practiced very hard to win a league title, but they only came out with one victory over Katella. Every game the sophomores played great and in many games lost by only one point. They practiced very hard under assistant coach Kurt Nielsen, and gave an impressive outlook for next year. Dave Bennett was chosen most valuable player with his outstanding performance during the year.

1. During the Oceanview game, Brad Hume looks for an offensive player to pass to.
2. Attempting to steal the ball from Cypress is Stewart Campbell, sophomore team member.
3. Having trouble getting control of the ball is Jack Seymour during a preseason game.
4. Attempting to score is Mike Bonnaud, as a defensive player tries to block at the CIF play-offs.
5. Aggressive player Jack Weisbly rolls over Kennedy player in a near scoring drive.
6. Sophomore Coach Kurt Nielsen gives Stewart Campbell words of wisdom at halftime.
7. Sophomore Waterpolo Team: L. Gutierrez, B. Barling, B. Gamble, J. Wang, A. Scearce, D. Bennett, J. Clark, M. Broski, S. Campbell, J. Seymour.

A second place victory was ticket to C.I.F.

The placing of the Varsity Cross Country team in the CIF finals was made possible by the outstanding efforts of the team, and notably by senior Larry Harvey, who placed second in the league.

Although the Varsity team came out of the first meet with a disappointing and unexpected loss, they soon overcame it to show their strength in the meets to follow.

Defeating tough teams from Saddleback, Katella, and Kennedy, Loara's runners came in 2nd with a score of 42. Larry Harvey placed 2nd, and Mike Serna placed 6th.

Other outstanding members of the team were Steve Seymour, Alan Leonard, and Ken Bishop. These athletes also ran for the Junior Varsity in some meets when they were needed.

1. Ahead of the rest is junior, Ken Bishop. He placed 1st in the league for the junior varsity team.
2. Resting after a practice run, Alan Leonard and Greg Perry wait for the results on a previous race.
3. Working toward the finish, Varsity member Alan Leonard keeps his eyes on the path in front of him.
4. Varsity Cross Country-Manager R. Chadbourne, A. Leonard, L. Harvey, M. Simpson, S. Burch, Coach Hurlbert. Bottom Row — G. Perry, K. Bishop, S. Seymour, M. Serna.

Extra practice creates a super season

Running through the summer and after school, Loara's Junior Varsity Cross Country team and Coach Hurlbert spent many hours preparing for league competition.

After a loss in their first meet, the runners came back to place 1st in the league finals. Junior Ken Bishop came in 1st for the Saxons.

On their way up is the Sophomore team. They won over half of their league games, defeating powerful teams from Saddleback and Kennedy.

A new addition to Loara's Cross Country was the girls' team. Showing much control, the girls proved to be strong competition for other teams. Leading the girls' team was Kathy Ulco and Ellen Bandemer through out the season.

1. Taking a practice run are juniors Ken Bishop, Pat Keeler and Alan Leonard.
2. Girls show their stuff as juniors Ellen Bandemer and Kathy Ulco, run together at a meet.
3. Girls' Cross Country. E. Bandemer, C. Davis, K. Parsons, K. Johnson, S. Medina, C. Whyte, and K. Ulco.
4. Junior Varsity. K. McDaniel, S. Grindell, M. Schroder, G. Snead, P. Keeler, J. Allee, B. Duke, and Tracy Lowe.
5. Sophomores. R. Obrigawitch, B. Lewis, D. Pipes, R. Chadbourne, J. Amezcaa, P. Davis, and B. Murry.

Tough competition no determent to women

Tennis and Volleyball were two of the favorite sports in G.A.A. Loara's varsity teams came up with some winning teams.

Tennis had an outstanding season this year with a record of 8-2. The ladies only suffered defeats to Los Alamitos in their first round and Saddleback in their second round. Loara came up with the number-one team in the league this year. They were Kate Kennelly and Sara Schantz.

Volleyball had a tough season this year. With efforts made by Cheryl Peterson and Carol Krutcik, who made most of their spikes for points, and Laurie Vanaken who, served a 15-1 game to defeat Los Alamitos, the varsity team placed third in the league.

1. Varsity Volleyball: C. Krutcik, D. Lynch, L. Cooper, M. Crowe, Coach Woo, C. Peterson, Coach Soos, L. Vanaken, S. Kunz, L. Johnson, and L. Lawson.
2. Getting ready for her next shot is Sara Shantz, of the Varsity Tennis team.

Top players, sacrifices bring home victories

Just as the Varsity season had something to be proud of so did the Junior Varsity. Making sacrifices and playing their best was what the teams had to offer, and in most cases this was enough to bring victories back to Loara.

Under the coaching talents of Mrs. Soos, the Junior Varsity had a great season this year. With a 10-5 season the volleyball team managed to gain a co-championship with Cypress.

Junior Varsity Tennis did not do as well in league standing as was hoped. Many of them went up to play varsity when the team was plagued with illnesses. This led the J.V. team to a 4th place league standing.

1. J.V. Tennis: K. Lasson, D. Flynn, J. Pyle, S. Ball, T. Dileno, J. Hodge, K. Parsons, L. Jackman, B. Lopez, M. Baldoras, and Coach Wampler.
2. The number one player on the varsity team is Heidi Ohanesian, who is seen demonstrating her backhand.
3. In good form is Kate Kennelly, who with her partner Sara Schantz were the number one team in the league.
4. Watching the return are Lynn Cornelius and Marion Lopez. They are the number two team in the Empire League.
5. J.V. Volleyball: C. Silverman, V. Bouler, J. Scott, C. Molina, T. Oppelt, Coach Soos, Coach Woo, K. Patterson, R. Johnson, L. Abbot, M. Scarpa, and L. Topjian.

Thornton's pit produces SAXON-MANIA

Much stamina was required of those athletes who chose to take part in the exciting game of basketball.

Playing at the pit, a nickname given to the Saxon gym, Coach Thornton and the Varsity team produced great "Saxon-Mania."

Throughout the season the team showed the fans many tense and exciting moments, as in one moment there would be a feeling of defeat all around, then they would, like magic, turn the score around and grab up another victory.

A new head coach this year could be the cause of the new look Saxons. His name is Steve Thornton, coach of last year's J.V. His new assistant coach, Gary Blate is new to Loara.

We have seen many unique and outstanding items which makes this team special, the friendship of each player to his teammate, the will and desire to do and produce their best.

1. Watching senior Tim McConnon falling through with a set shot as he makes the basket.
2. Shooting for a basket, senior Paul Felix, makes two points during the Cypress game.
3. Varsity Basketball: T. McConnon, S. Bastos, R. Delbridge, G. McFarland, B. Kennedy, D. Connary, P. Felix, J. Lindenmeyer, R. Pluimer, B. Martin, and B. Bodine.
4. Running off the court after being announced, seniors Brad Martin, Rick Pluimer, and Gary McFarland, junior, get ready to play.

Outstanding players make for good season

Each and every player was outstanding in his effort for the Saxon team. It would be hard for us to give credit to just a few players so we now give credit to all of them.

Saxon Varsity Basketball was only defeated three times during the whole league play, that was by Katella twice and Los Alamitos once.

To mention a few of the Saxons on this great team: Rick Pluimer is a two year member, Gary McFarland is the only junior on the team.

This type of team work is the type that produces winners. Saxon-Mania was taken into the CIF play-offs.

1. Watching senior Brad Martin shooting a free throw during the warm-up.
2. Struggling for the ball during the game with Kennedy, junior Gary McFarland gets possession.
3. The ballad of those diving fools technique is shown here by senior Paul Felix as he slides across the floor.
4. Shooting outside, senior Rick Pluimer shows us his great form, as the Saxons defeat Kennedy.
5. With his tongue out as usual, senior John Lindenmeyer shoots for a basket.
6. Talking to his assistant coach Gary Blate, Coach Steve Thornton explains details of the next play.

Effort and friendship create great year

The Junior Varsity team had an outstanding year. They produced great team effort and great team friendship.

Coaching the Junior Varsity team this year was Coach Scott Pickler, who coached the sophomore team the year before.

By the effort of all the teammates and the will to do their best, the Junior Varsity team had a fantastic record.

1. Trying to get open, sophomore Tom Davidson jumps his highest to save the ball.
2. Getting ready to pass the ball, junior Chris Olsen waits for his teammate to get clear.
3. Dribbling down the court, junior Steve Falk, looks for an opening to pass the ball.
4. Junior Varsity: D. Coffman, J. Colker, S. Cotaya, T. Davidson, S. Falk, K. Haakenson, B. Hochstetler, M. Houck, F. Johnson, J. Kelly, R. Kobze, D. Langner, C. Olson, and B. Thompson.

Sophomore and sophomore J.V. showed great talent and determination to produce the best they could during the season.

Sophomore coach was Gary Berg, a newcomer to the Saxon Coaching Staff. Coaching the sophomore J.V. team this year was also a newcomer, Kirk Parge.

Both coaches feel that in the following years these two teams and the team players will produce great Saxon teams. They have great potential and the will to carry on the good records of the Saxon teams.

1. Sophomore J.V. Basketball Team: B. Bodine, S. Jones, M. Baker, R. Stuart, J. Moses, A. Dean, E. Krajec, S. DiCicco, C. Hughes, M. Reece.

Talent controls the Empire League title

One thing can be said for the Varsity Wrestling this year and that is that this has to be one of the most talented teams in years. Names such as Bruce Terry and Bob Roberts have been in newspapers everywhere.

With the coaching talents of John Dahlem, the mighty Saxons captured the Empire League title and an undefeated season. Tough matches against teams from Cypress and Katella proved that "We are the Champions."

Everyone knew the season was going to be great as the tough wrestlers took on rough teams in pre-season competition. Defeating the mighty Westminster Lions, a team we haven't beaten in about 7 years, and coming out way ahead of all the other teams at the El Dorado Takedown in Santa Cruz, Loara has become a well-known name for fine wrestling.

1. Determination is shown on the face of Senior Dave Morgan as his opponent tries to get a grip on him.
2. Raising his arms in victory junior Dan Duncan gets a big cheer from his fellow teammates.
3. Varsity Wrestling: J. Fuller, D. Morgan, C. Winkle, M. Beihl, D. Ryan, A. Nilges, K. Bieker, D. Graubart, J. Berryman, G. Gann, K. Jones, R. Crovich, C. Arakaki, M. Gallant, B. Reimer, D. Krutcik, T. Disney, D. Zager, D. Duncan, B. Roberts, T. Judge, and B. Terry.
4. Pain is shown on the face of a Kennedy wrestler as Bob Roberts holds him down for the pin.
5. Waiting for the round to start is junior Bruce Terry. He had gone undefeated all season.

Closeness provides for hard working team

Working long hard hours before and after school, practicing during winter vacation, and tough sixth-period practice made the Varsity team close and strong.

Defeating teams from all over the state, Loara took pride in announcing that the Wrestling team came in first in the Empire League with an undefeated season.

Showing much power during the season was junior Bruce Terry at 98 pounds. He has wrestled on the varsity now for two years. Three-year varsity member Bob Roberts contributed a lot to the team. Two-year members Drew Zager, Jeff Fuller, and Mike Biehl all kept the team on the right track. Some outstanding first-year members are Dave Morgan, Chuck Winkle, Dino Ryan, and Brian Reamer, Seniors, and Jim Krutcik, Dan Duncan, and Cleve Arakaki, Juniors.

Troy Disney and Tim Judge helped by wrestling their best and being there to cheer the team on.

Wrestling teams rank #1 in Empire League

"Undefeated" was the victory cry of the Saxons this year. Both Junior Varsity and Sophomores were ranked Number 1.

Heading the Junior Varsity team this year was a group of talented guys that managed to bring pride to Loara. Defeating tough teams from Cypress, Kennedy, and Katella, they proved themselves to be the best.

Following good examples, the Sophomore team finished their league play with an undefeated record. Learning moves that will lead them into victories in years to come, and with talent that we have, Loara has a good future in wrestling for years to come.

1. Taking his opponent down for the count is junior Joe Reardon, during the Cypress match.
2. Holding his own is senior Kevin Jones, who also wrestled on the varsity team.
3. Giving instruction to the Sophomore team is Coach Dahlem, after a close match.

Bruce Terry brings home state title.

This was a year for firsts at Loara, with a varsity Wrestling record of 14-0 and the junior varsity and sophomore teams went undefeated in league play.

But the ultimate was reached by Bruce Terry who went to statefinals and, as a junior, captured the 98 lb. title. It took two tough days of wrestling against the best in California before Bruce received his trophy.

In San Diego, Bruce wrestled Martin Kissler from Notre Dame, 4 to 3 in an over-time decision. He had previously lost to the same wrestler in CIF Finals.

1. Gaining control of his Cypress opponent during league finals, is junior Jim Krutcik.
2. Heavyweight Chuck Winkle applies pressure to his opponent in winning move.
3. Victory is the sign of senior Bob Roberts during the league finals at Kennedy.

Bad weather plagues girls' athletics

Girls' athletics were definitely advancing at Loara and this was seen in basketball as well as in field hockey.

Mass confusion set its course for girls' field hockey teams this winter. Continuous rain storms plagued the season, causing many of their games to be postponed and postponed again, because of the new "Lake Loara" that could be seen daily out on the field. In spite of all the rain, it was not an uncommon sight to see the girls working hard, practicing for their future games.

This weather, in addition to many injuries, accounted for their 1-1-7 loss this season.

1. Concentration and coordination are combined as Maggie Crowe dribbles the ball down court.
2. Women's Varsity Basketball 1978: V. Bolar, L. Cooper, M. Crowe, T. Grass, M. Lopez, D. Lynch, K. Morse, C. Peterson, S. Schantz, G. Walker.
3. After a hard afternoon workout, Lisa Cornelius and Lisa McRoberts head for the locker room.

Women enjoy second successful season

A first round C.I.F. loss to Poly ended this year's very successful season with an 18-5 record.

Outstanding players were Cheryl Peterson, for her point total, and Liz Cooper and Kathleen Morse for rebounds. All the girls were to be commended for their excellent performance and contributions during the games, making the teams the strongest seen at Loara in three years.

Unlike last year the girls had priority over the boys in the gym, giving them prime time for practicing. They also started charging those students without student body cards and adults to get into "the Pit" to see their games.

1. The opponents are confused by Diane Le Doux's amazingly accurate shot.
2. Women's J.V. Field Hockey 1978: S. Crowe, K. Horten, M. Katz, S. Magee, V. Topjian, K. Webb, L. Bracken, N. Mitchell.
3. A towering jump is shown by Cheryl Peterson as she shoots for the basket.

Work and preparation produce fine results

Despite this year's heavy rains, Coach Dave Nelson had his hard working track team lifting weights, hopping around the track on one foot, and "running a helluva lot," according to an unnamed source.

A lot of work and preparation went into the 1978 team and not without some fine results. Larry Harvey, a senior, ran the 440 and had the fastest 880 time recorded in the district.

1. Straining for those extra inches is long jumper Jack Weisbly.
2. Head foremost, senior Jeff Allee, takes first place in the 100 yard dash.
3. In the meet against Marina, Senior Chuck Winkle passes the baton to Mike Egan, also a senior.

Varsity's effort overcomes disadvantages

Giving an all-out effort was the Varsity swimming and diving to complete the league season with a 2-3 record. Having the disadvantage of a small team, Loara proved that much could be said for the team.

Coach Husband spent many hours of worrying whether or not she would have enough people at each meet. The small turnout was due to illnesses, but despite that the Saxon team did a great job.

In the first league meet against Saddleback, Loara's swimmers demolished the Roadrunners 109-25. This Spirit carried through the season and helped the Saxons to another victory.

Water sports at Loara are on the rise. The course set by these fine teams will prove to be helpful in years to come.

1. Showing his form during the meet against Kennedy is Varsity diver, Brad Hume.
2. Changing direction with great skill is senior Bernie Glasser during the meet with Katella.
3. Exhaustion is shown on the face of senior Ed Broski, as he finishes the 200 freestyle.
4. Varsity Swimming and Diving: Top: G. Bennett, D. Barr, D. Nielsen, J. Summers, M. Willard, G. Graybeal. Front: D. Zenteno, B. Hume, B. Glasser, P. Fortinberry, E. Broski.

Tremendous turnout helps teams succeed

As the spring sports season got underway, so did women's athletics. There was a good turnout for all the sports, which included swimming, softball, badminton, and gymnastics. This partially accounted for the success of the teams. All the athletes spent long hours practicing and put out a fantastic effort, pre-season, preparing for each of the different areas of competition, bringing well-deserved wins to Loara.

1. With much energy, Holly McBain throws the ball infield to make an out.
2. Displaying her gymnastic ability is Robyn Dubach doing a cartwheel.
3. After a pre-game warm up Debbie Schroeder relaxes on the couch.
4. While in the pool Beth Gamble shows a very surprised look to our photographers.

Optimism plus practice successful formula

Girls' swimming dove right in this season under the coaching of Mrs. Jackie Husband. Each girl put in a lot of effort, coming after school to practice each event she was to compete in. They were a very talented group and were great competitors. The girls reached their goals by keeping an optimistic attitude throughout the season.

Girls' softball swung into action with much excitement and enthusiasm as they began practice for their season. With Mr. Brad Pickler as their coach, the girls worked very hard at offensive and defensive tactics during the hot afternoons.

2. Swimming laps in the pool is an every-day activity of the swim team.
3. After a hard workout, Sharylene Shinoda and a friend rest at the side of the pool.
4. Practicing her routine on the beam with much concentration is Chris Rhodes.
5. 1978 Women's Swim Team: Top: S. Shinoda, K. Brush, L. Varley, L. McRoberts, K. Silverman. B. Gamble, D. Horton, C. Harrison, J. Magee, V. Stolz. H. Vanaken, J. Kerr, J. Stanley, A. Zwieback, S. Dial. Front: P. Martens, B. Baldwin, T. Sandarg, T. Rapoport, P. Farnsworth.
6. Preparing to put away a point is varsity player Cheryl Peterson.
7. Exercising the saying "Practice makes perfect," is Mary Finney being spotted by Mary Scarpa.

Grace and style part of each game

Leaping their way through competitions, the girls' gymnastics team easily proved their abilities. Their coach was Karyn Kidwell, her second year of coaching the team. Each girl showed her talents to the greatest extent in each area. Each year the Olympics have girls becoming champions at younger ages, and perhaps some of our girls will be there in the future.

"Watch the birdie" was an expression that was used often by Tom Schick, as he coached the girls badminton team. Concentration and skill are needed in this game, and the girls certainly showed theirs when it came time to compete. The girls practiced at six o'clock in the morning and put much effort into the season.

1. Great pitching by Kyrie Pagalidis keeps the opponents on their toes at all times.
2. Women's Badminton Team: Top: C. Walker, C. Holina, S. Ball, S. Vedereff, D. Phillips, J. Song, C. Peterson, L. Solar, S. Magee. Front: C. Cleaver, D. Meyer, D. Schmidt, M. Katz, D. Schroeder, K. Conally, S. Devary, Coach Tom Schick.

Chandler's returnees lead the team.

With returning players Paul Felix, who was All Orange County first baseman; Steve Longo, All Empire League and All-Big A; and Tim McConnon, who was named to All Empire and the All-Big A as an infielder, the Saxons entered the Empire League Season with few worries.

Doing most of the throwing were seniors Rich Richie and Rick Meunier. In fact, it was basically a senior team, with great speed coming from Mark Porter, Jeff Foster, and Tim McConnon.

Floyd Chandler returned as the varsity coach and also returning this year was varsity assistant coach, Mike Holato.

1. Such emotion is shown by Tom Shardt, as he's about to crack that bat in two!
2. They're Off!! After a small pre-game conference, the varsity team is ready to attack.
3. Triumphantly grabbing that "blazing ball" is catcher, Steve Longo.
4. Great concentration is shown by Rich Richie, who still manages to keep his eyes on that powerful pitch.
5. Varsity Baseball: Coach F. Chandler, P. Felix, S. Angotti, S. Longo, T. Shardt, J. Foster, K. Smith, R. Meunier, R. Richie, assistant coach: Mike Holato, Var. mgr. M. Bova, D. Keith, D. Ryan, J. Herbert, K. Payne, K. Haakenson, T. McConnon, R. Leon, M. Porter.

Wet season can't stop winning streak

With three games left in the season, the Saxons held first place with a thirteen game winning streak to defend.

Many league games had to be postponed this season due to the constant weekly rainfalls. However, when weather permitted, the Saxons couldn't be stopped. Coach Chandler, along with the team captains Tim McConnon and Steve Longo, led the team into what seemed to be an unending streak of wins.

With a most experienced team, the Saxons continued getting praised throughout the season.

1. Many thoughts are running through the minds of the players before a game with Villa Park.
2. Coach Chandler ready to get the game going, heads for the dugout.
3. Throwing a fast ball is versatile player Paul Felix, who pitched as well as playing the first base and fielding.
4. Great concentration is shown by Jeff Herbert, at second base.
5. Great concern is shown by Jr. Kevin Haakenson and Sr. Lee Meyers.
6. Quick with his glove, shortstop Jim McConnon gets the ball before throwing to first for an out.

Victories reward talented players

Providing the Saxon fans with much satisfaction as they defeated Katella, Kennedy and Los Al in league games, the J.V.'s moved into first place.

Early successes of the Junior Varsity baseball team were due to outstanding efforts by pitchers Tracy Siler and Rob Baker as well as players, Ron Leon, and John Kelly. Victories over Saddleback and talented Lakewood proved the ability of Coach Ron Martin's well-disciplined squad.

After the first two rounds the Sophomore team remained undefeated, assuring them their league-champ title.

Coach Scott Pickler had the task of organizing an inexperienced group of sophomores, who turned out to be strong defensively. Outstanding players were center fielder, Bob Bodine; short-stop-pitcher, Colin Monisako; pitcher, Darryl Buskirk; second baseman, Mark Burdick; and utility player, Phil Soma.

Dedicated, determined athletes compete

Two sports which are unique in that both emphasize individual competition as much as team co-operation are Loara's Tennis and Golf teams.

Returning players and new talent lent the varsity tennis squad great potential. Dedication and determination are prime ingredients for good tennis players as well as team effort.

Returning Coach Ed Brown led both the varsity and junior varsity teams. Giving great team support as well as individual effort were senior, Howard Sklar; junior, Mark Workman; and senior, Alex Simovich.

The smallness of the tennis and golf teams as well as the lack of facilities for spectators caused both groups to lack the attention they deserve. These players compete for the love of the sport, not for glory.

Juniors

When you come to Loara in your junior year, the excitement of coming to a "new school" is gone. Things become more routine.

But the junior year is an enjoyable one. You're already acquainted with the school, so you've got a pretty good idea of what you want to do. You've got more friends, because the students from Ball and the students from Trident are united. You've got a better chance of participating in varsity sports, and you're treated with more respect in general.

Most juniors are sixteen years old, the first stage of adulthood. It's the first year you can (legally) drive, so the responsibility of a car and insurance are of importance. It's also easier to get a job, which is another big step in life.

The junior year is a time to start making decisions. After just one more year — the senior year — you're on your own. Are you ready?

"I feel the class is a sophisticated group; they know exactly where they're going!"

Juniors promote unique prom site

After one year at Loara, the Junior class started off on the right foot. They sold food in the food lines, during summer school, and at the concession stands at home football games. They had many sales such as candy cane and pretzel sales. All the profits went toward the prom, which was held at Lion Country Safari. While in the park, the couples were able to play in the arcade, take rides in the Hippo Paddle Boats, shoot in the target galleries and stroll along the paths in the moonlight with lions grunting, monkeys squealing, rhinos snorting, and all sorts of animal sounds in the background. Very romantic.

The Junior class was also very excited this year. Most of them, 16 years old and over, were able to pass the driver's test at the DMV and now have licenses! This new freedom gave them a feeling of maturity.

Knowing that they weren't the youngest, or the oldest, either, they felt that they were part of Loara.

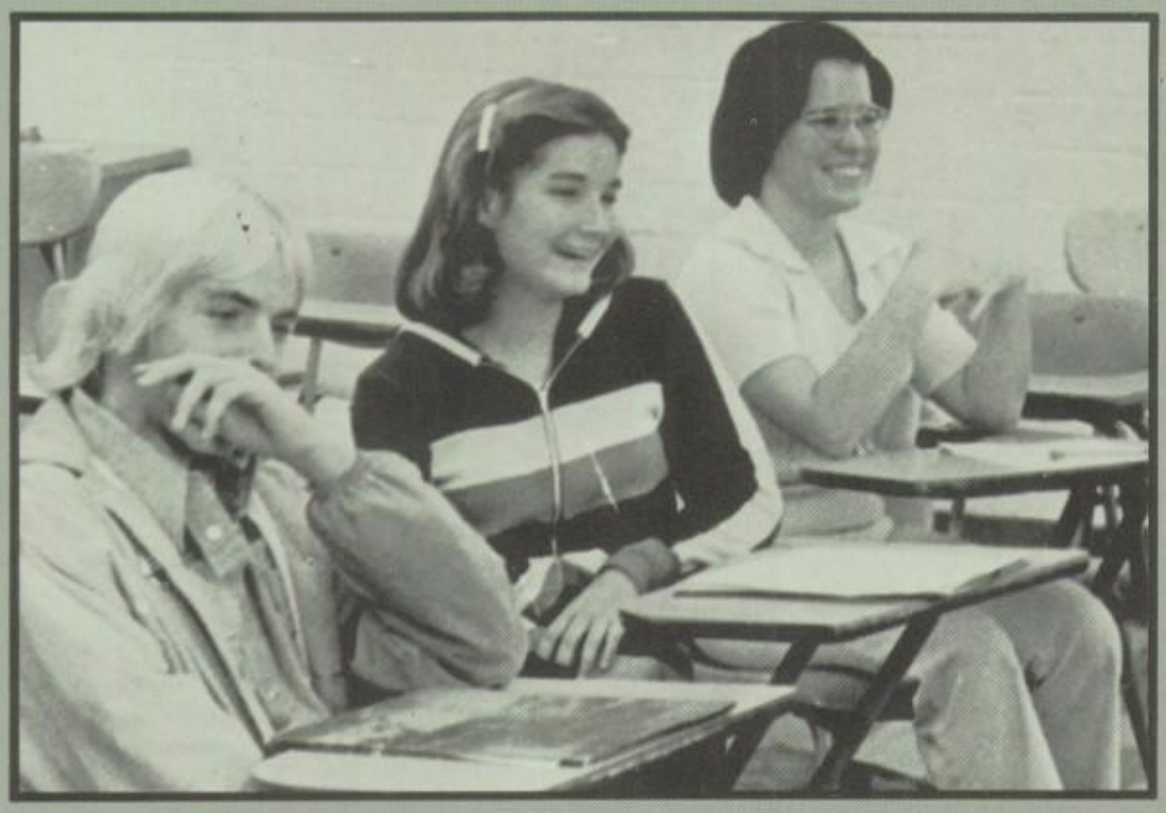
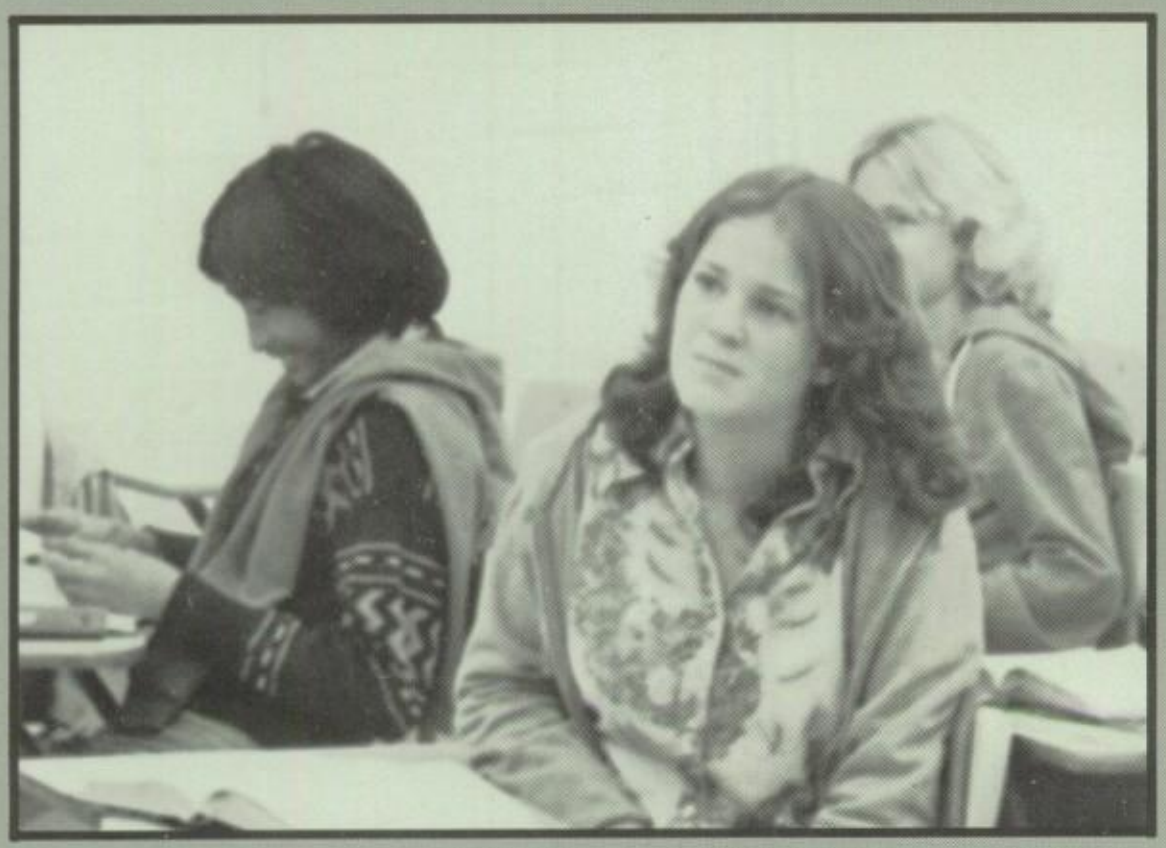
During a short intermission in his fourth period class, Dan Moniz expresses a look of curiosity and deep thought while working on his homework. The new emphasis on basic skills increased the homework in many classes.





Sophomores

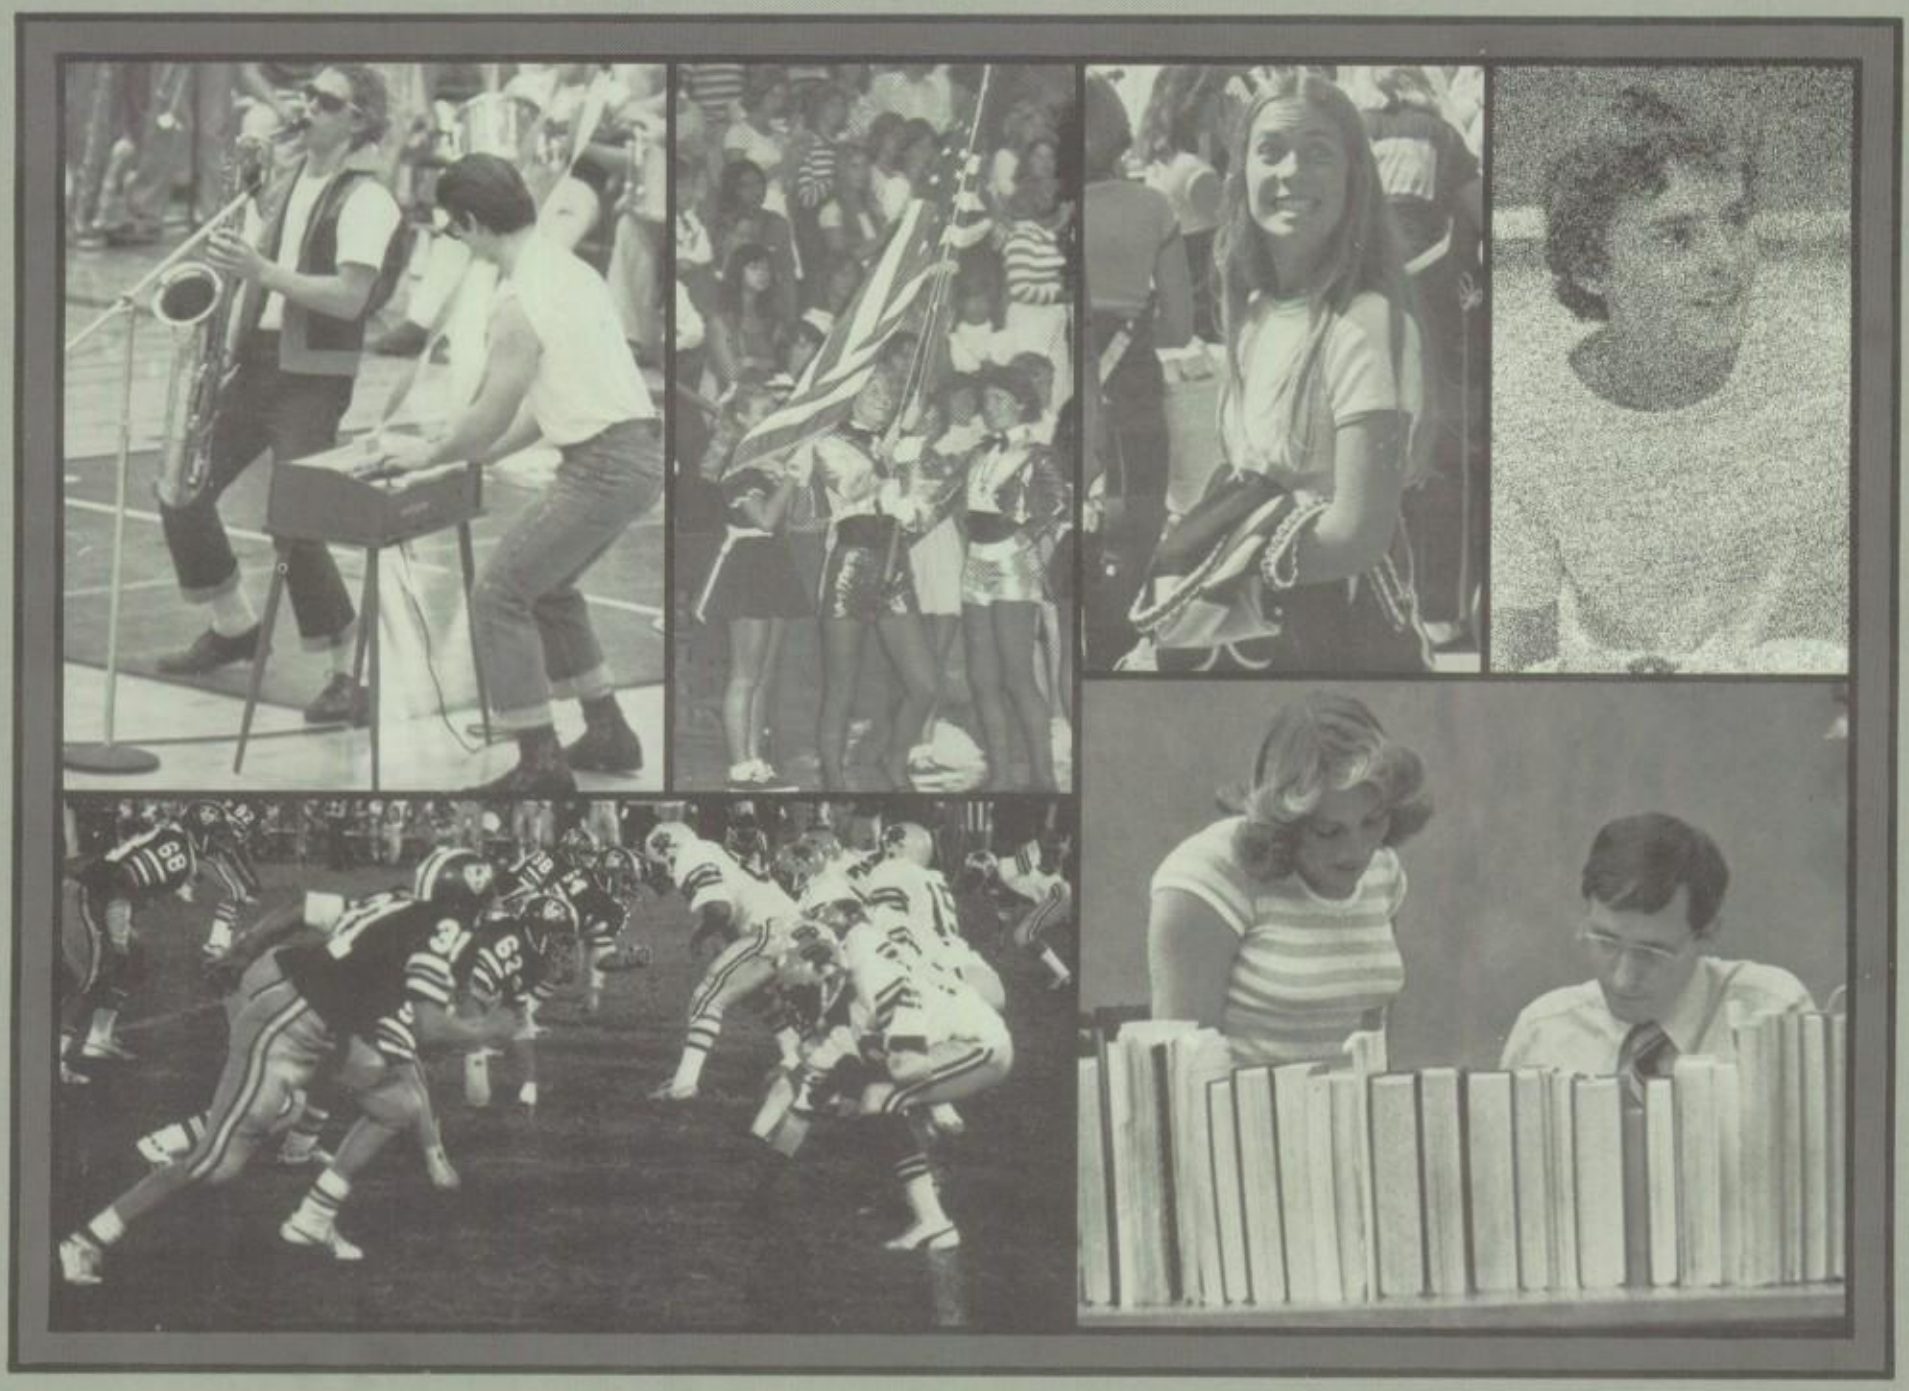
A combination of excitement and curiosity probably best describes the feelings of the sophomores.

After a wonderful year of superiority at their junior high schools, the sophomores start at the bottom of the list again upon entering high school. So begins another climb up the ladder to becoming a ruling senior.

But coming to Loara opened up a whole new horizon for most sophomores. Its vast selection of unique and interesting courses offered many a new learning experience to the incoming students.

Loara has left quite an impression on the sophomores. Who will remember the excitement of your first pep assembly? Were you surprised with the efficiency of the speed lines? How did it feel to see couples on campus openly embracing each other without getting hassled? Did 52 minutes rather than 45 per class seem long?

However they felt, and whatever their impressions were, most sophomores accepted the challenge of high school life.



"The class of '80 will be remembered for its creativity and spirit."
Alan Scearce

Sophomore class puts it together

Sophomores made a smooth transition from being number I in ninth grade, to being babies all over again. Most of our sophomores came from Trident or Ball Junior High and adjusted well.

Getting behind the wheel for the first time was a major accomplishment for the sophomores — a few fender benders perhaps, but most ultimately received their licenses. If they weren't busy behind the simulator or the "real thing," they were spending their time listening to lectures on first aid, good nutrition, mental health, and sex education.

Led by class president, Alan Scearce; vice-president, Mike Bradford; secretary, Sharon Waxman; and treasurer, Laura Smith; the sophomore class contributed much of the spirit that prevailed at Loara.

Preparations were already being made for fund-raising activities to sponsor the 1979 prom.

Overall, the year turned out to be a profitable one.

An attentive Gayle Maul 'escorts' injured Dennis Gordon to his next class.

Vicki Bolton and Cheryl Van Diggelin take time out for a quick conversation by the swimming pool, after school.

A place on the grass, if not green, field is where many sophomores preferred to have lunch, in good weather, at least. Some tackled the snack lines; others planned ahead.

Through the years, the Seaxe's reputation as a yearbook of quality and excellence has grown tremendously. We, the staff, hope that the 1978 version helps to further its reputation.

Layout styles: Opening and closing sections are smokestack. All divisionals are gallery. The sports section is pattern with mosaic styling and the activities section is freestyle, with the exception of the activity section divisionals, which are sideline.

Typestyles: All type is done in eight, ten and twelve point News Gothic and News Gothic Boldface.

Headline Styles: Typestyles for the cover, opening, table of contents page and closing section use Standard Medium. Title and reference pages use Microgramma Bold Extended. All section divisionals and the index use Octopuss. The divisionals in the activities section use Manhattan, and all other heads are done in Palatino.

The Cover: The Seaxe Staff decided this year to return to the traditional red cover, using mission grain material. Special thanks go to Kevin Ross, whose fantastic artwork is seen on the cover.

Photo Credits: All photographic equipment was supplied by the Albert and James Photography Studios, who also took the senior pictures. The sophomore and junior pictures were taken by the Blalack Photography Studios. With the exception of a few sports photos and special portraits, all other pictures are the work of students, including sophomore Ed Pace, who took the drill team pictures at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. We'd also like to thank Larry Kluss, who is in charge of school services at Albert and James.

Publishing: The Seaxe was published and executed by the yearbook staff of Loara High School. It was printed by the Taylor Publishing Co. of Dallas, Texas. Their representative, Bill Milne, also deserves special thanks.

The Seaxe wouldn't be what it is today without the help of our fantastic advisor, Ms. Keni Christensen. How she manages to oversee both the yearbook and newspaper, and also teach three English classes every school day without going crazy is beyond us. We really appreciate the time and effort that she contributed.

Thanks also to those students who contributed poetry, artwork and photographs to the Expressions section.

Which semester went faster for you? The first one is best remembered for the excitement of a new year, football games and homecoming, and the Christmas vacation, which this year had an extra day added to allow for the New Year's Day observance, since January first came on a Sunday.

Remember the heavy rains that flooded the streets and soaked the fields in January? Did you ruin that new pair of shoes you bought with your Christmas money? Or were you a member of the women's field hockey team, whose entire playing season was messed up due to the showers? Southern California weather is so strange. One day it's pouring and the next day it's nice and sunny. At least it helped put an end to the drought.

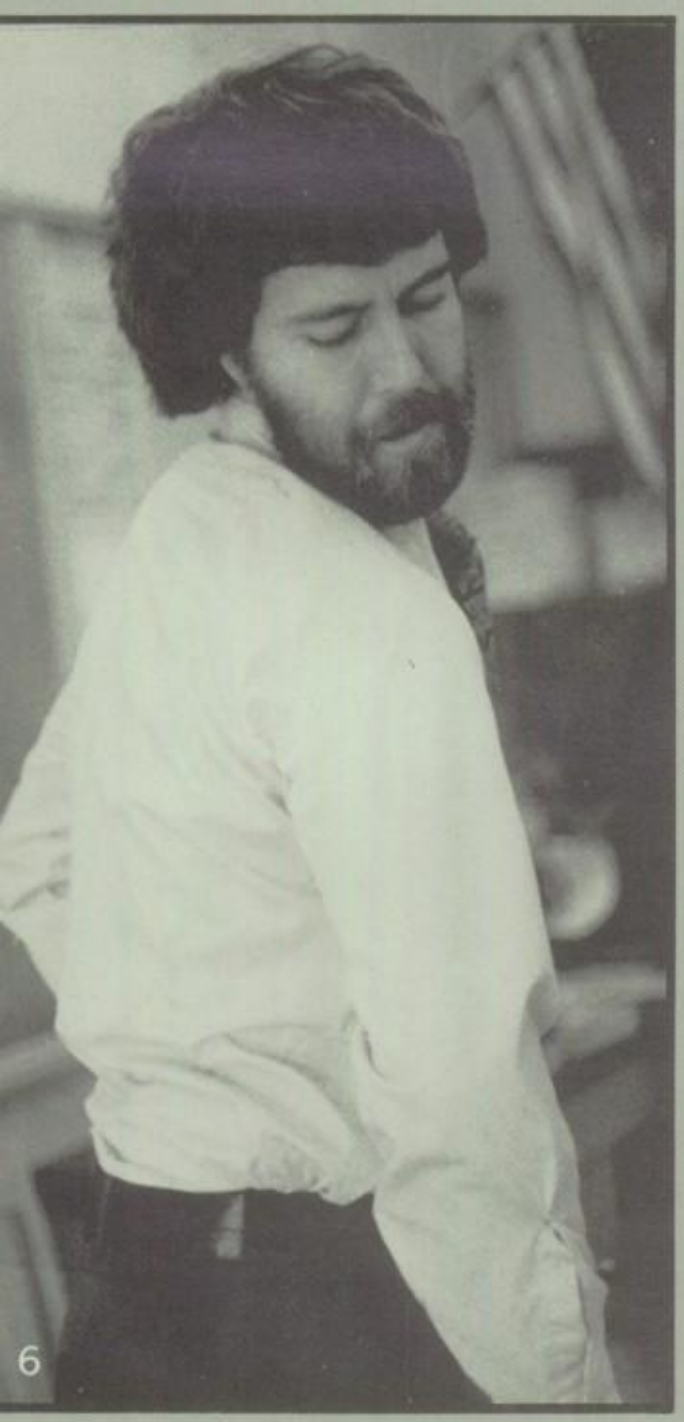
How about the second semester? The seniors were busy taking care of their cap and gown rentals, and sending out graduation announcements. Many attended the senior prom, the last high school dance they'll ever attend. And some were stricken with senioritis . . .

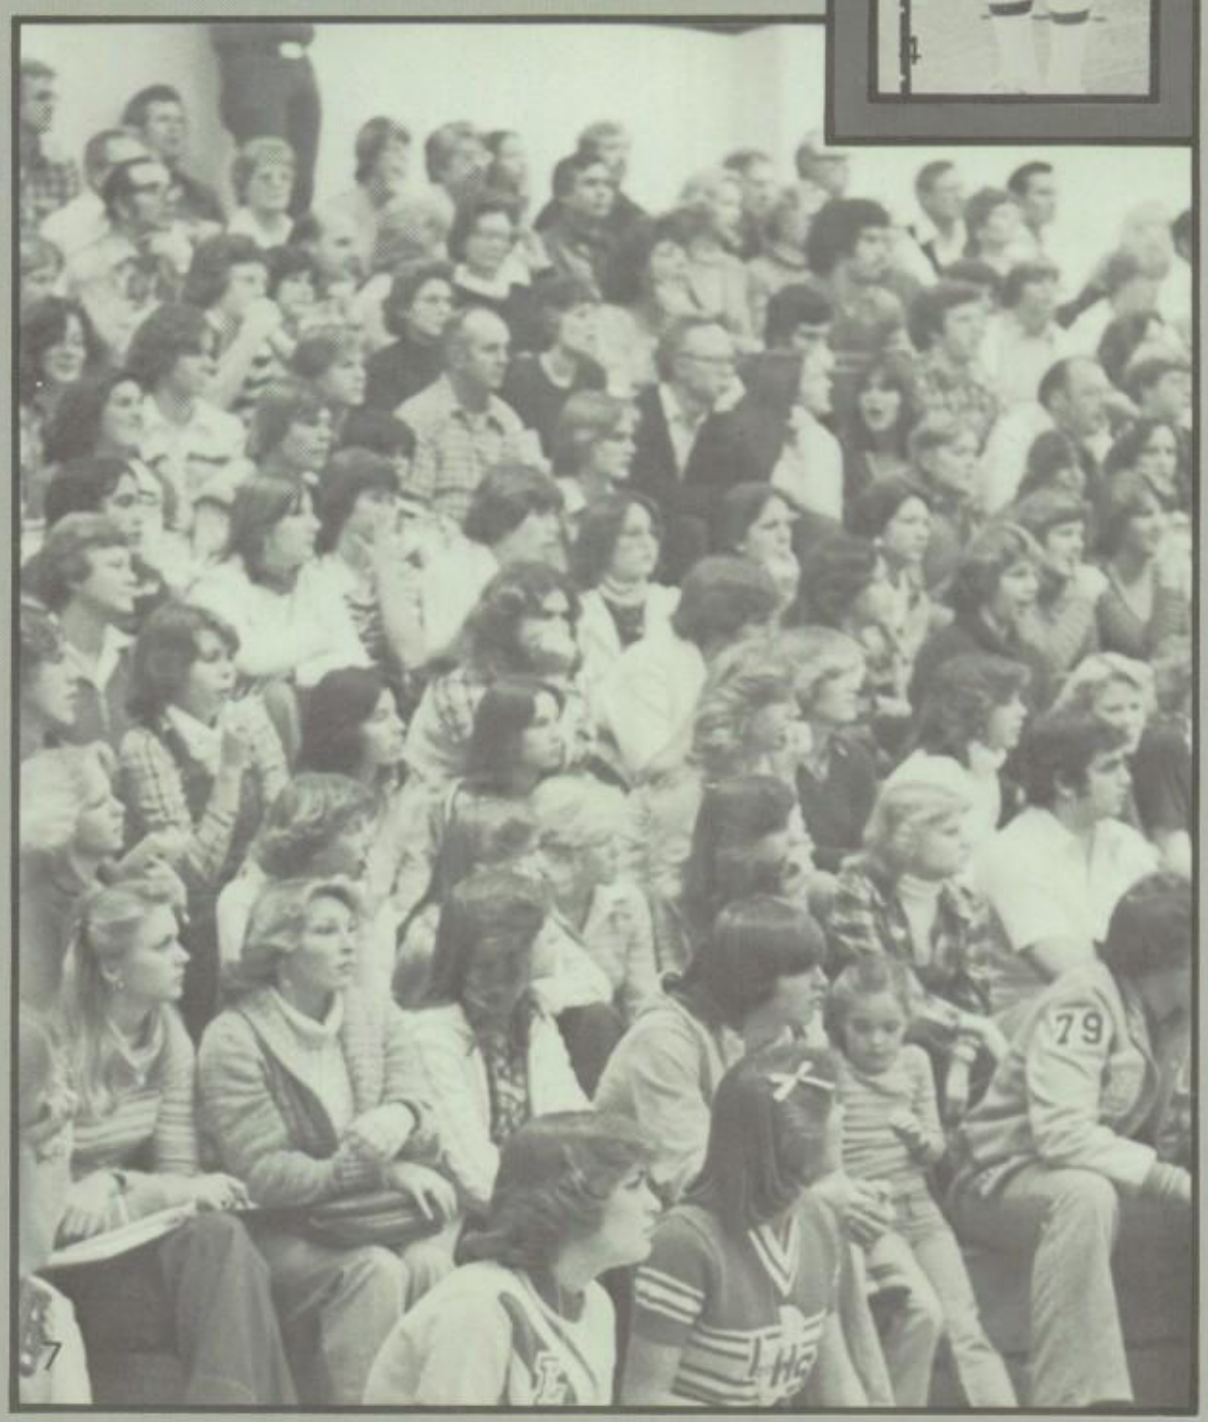
The last semester is also one of getting ready for the next. In May there's the election convention, and the new song and cheerleaders are chosen. There are many end-of-the-year ceremonies and banquets given by various groups such as CSF, ASB Cabinet and yearbook.

Did you win anything at the awards ceremony?

1. CHECKING IT OUT — It's hard to tell exactly what semantics teacher Jack Mitchell is looking at, but whatever it is, it must be interesting.
2. BRASS WITH CLASS — Just a small part of Loara's Pep Band, which performed at the basketball games and other sports events. Shown here are trumpeteers Tom Manning, Brian Ofner and Tom Duda.
3. RAINED OUT — The Junior multipurpose room was a convenient place to eat lunch when the rain and cold came, as illustrated by Howard Sklar, Jon Shaffer, Adam Ochwat and Chuck Hinman.
4. SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE — Coach Davis prepares to announce the varsity basketball team at a January pep rally.
5. SWORD AND SHIELD — Whenever the drill team performs, they hold the audience spellbound with their precision and excellence. The varied expressions of members Laureen Texley, Donna Tatting and Lisa Hagerman are shown here.
6. ART LOVER — Music, Art and Literature teacher Larry Klevos really gets into his work. Here he is seen demonstrating an Elizabethian king and queen dance.
7. CROWD CONTROL — The crowds that turned out to see the various Saxon sports events never diminished throughout the year. This one's part of the huge crowd that attended the championship Katella-Loara basketball game.

FAST





Did you ever notice that the life you led at Loara was completely different from your outside life? Some of the things that went on at school never take place anywhere else.

How many times did you stop by the student store during your three year stay at Loara? Did you see the mittens, mugs, scarves and even wastebaskets with the Loara Saxon insignia embedded on them? Is that what makes a high school?

How about the weekly films in history? The sound system in the Jr. multipurpose room was not the best. But it sure beat listening to some teacher's monotonous lectures.

Did the drinking fountains seem to be placed a little too low for your comfort? Or was it hard for you to reach the top book shelves in the library? Were you offended by Randy Newman's song, "Short People?"

Did you discuss your day at school every night at the dinner table? Were your parents interested in what you had to say? Did you tell them everything?

And when did you start counting down the days until June, when school got out? In May or September?

1. KISS ALIVE — The much heralded appearance of the group KISS during the January pep assembly really brought down the house. Saxon wrestler Bob Roberts plays the part of Kiss member Gene Simmons.
2. MATHEMATICALLY SPEAKING — Geometry teacher Don Budd pauses for a moment to answer a student's questions. The courses offered in the math department range from practical math to calculus.
3. SNOW BUSINESS — Ski jackets, in a wide variety of colors and designs, were seen on Loara's campus during the winter months. Shown here are senior Jody Monson and a friend during nutrition.
4. CHILDHOOD MEMORIES — Fatherly Tom Dorosky gives youthful Colleen Cleaver a quick ride around the senior court before first period.
5. GRACEFUL — Varsity basketball player Bryan Bodine exhibits expert form while shooting a hook throw during the Loara vs. Kennedy game. Expert coaching and brand new playing techniques really helped the varsity team this year.
6. CAPTIVE AUDIENCE — The expression on the faces of seniors Nancy Mitchell and Pam Prelitz seem calm and content during the intermission of "The Gong Show" which was presented at the end of Spirit Week.

Day after day, week after week, and month after month, you went through the same schedule of classes. Some things about Loara were pretty routine.

When you passed from class to class, did you notice the same people walking the same route every day? Some were a little more inventive and used several different paths to get to their classes. Were you one of these?

Did you have one of those teachers who always insisted that your books were covered? Did you use the free ones given away by the student store? How many other people had those "Go Navy" and "Join the People Who've Joined the Army" book covers? They seemed to wear out so fast.

Did you have trouble keeping your brand new ski jacket on the back of your chair when you took it off during class? Were your books ever knocked off the little shelf beneath your seat because the person behind you kept putting his feet there?

Wasn't it a drag when you got seated alphabetically? If you weren't, did you try to get a seat with a clear view of the clock? Some teachers' clocks never gave the correct time. Were you able to hear the morning announcements?

1. BOREDOM BLUES — Junior Paul DePerry's thoughts seem to have drifted off to never-never land during another lengthy class lecture.
2. TO CATCH A THIEF — Though she looks as if she's just taken the money from this cash register, it's actually checking and cashiering student Peggy Stuflick looking for help because its drawer is stuck.
3. REACH FOR THE SKY — Height was definitely an important factor with the basketball team. Six-foot-three inch Paul Felix was one of the team's top players.
4. CLOSE ENCOUNTER — Junior class secretary Allyson Nakasone is seen stopping by her locker just before a Jr. class senate meeting. The class officers conducted all of the senate meetings with efficiency and responsibility.
5. QUARTERBACK SNEAK — Varsity quarterback Craig Weissman readies himself for the handoff in a determining play during the Los Alamitos game at Handel Stadium.
6. SPORTSMANSHIP — Varsity Wrestler Bryan Reamer courageously shakes the hand of his opponent in a match at the gym. The Loara Saxon wrestling team went undefeated in their season.
7. WHAT'S SO FUNNY? — Cheerleader Denise Langner looks to songleader Lori Wright to find out what it is that she's laughing so hard about. There's always something enjoyable at Loara's various social events.
8. WATERLOGGED — Scenes like this were common during January when heavy rains flooded the parking lot entrance on Cerritos Avenue.

Even though nine months may seem like a long time for a school year, the activities and goings on at Loara never seemed to diminish.

The threatened strike regarding teacher-employer negotiations really had everyone guessing as to whether or not the second semester would start on time. But, at the last minute, a settlement was reached and classes started in February as usual, but only after the resignation of school superintendent R. Kenton Wines. The conflict even brought coverage on the news and in local papers.

And Sammy Saxon was repainted! The towering statue, which stands in the center of the school in the senior circle, was constructed in 1969 by ceramics' teacher Ron Tracy. Sammy's brick red coloring was replaced by a glistening gold color, which really added a sparkle to Loara's already beautiful campus.

March brought to our school hot weather and the feisty "Santa Ana" winds, which do not originate from Santa Ana. But, with that, the girls got to bring out their sundresses and many guys were seen on campus wearing shorts and sandals.

Easter vacation came early this year. But after nine long days of rest and relaxation (for some), fellow Saxons settled down and sweated it out for the short two-and-a-half months of April, May and June — and then it was summer . . .

1. DEFYING GRAVITY — Sophomore track team member Maurice Levan takes an energetic leap through the air during one of the many after-school practices of the track team.
2. INVOLVED — Helping with the props at "Almost Anything Goes" is senior cabinet member Scott Angotti. "Almost" was one of the many events that took place during spirit week in March.
3. MAN OVERBOARD — Finding the street so flooded that he can't walk across it, senior Dane Patterson makes use of "Orangewood River" in another way.
4. THE DRY LOOK — A bubble shaped umbrella helps senior Kim Eichberger keep her hair dry on a cold and rainy January day.
5. SPREADING THE WORD — Wearing complete nun's attire, junior Gloria Lee tries to gather up a few more converts — during spirit week.
6. FISH OUT OF WATER — Sophomore swim team member Stewart Campbell takes a deep breath before taking yet another plunge into the warm waters of the school swimming pool.
7. CONVERSATION — Discussing what he just learned in chemistry is senior Kris Thompson, who looks ready and eager to go on to his next class.
8. SUCH GOOD FRIENDS — Yearbook members Caroline Ralph and Steve Bergschneider enjoy each other's company just before lunch. The picnic tables were a perfect place for people to socialize at any time of the day.

As each year moves on, so do its people. For some, they'll be back next year, with new friends and acquaintances. For others, it's all over.

You'll never have the security you had in high school. And it's hard to keep in touch with everyone you knew there. You'll never see many of them again after the graduation ceremony.

But you will have your memories. There will be things about Loara you'll never forget. Maybe you'll even tell your children and your grandchildren.

Sure, you couldn't wait for school to be over with. But didn't it seem to go by just a little too fast?

1. MM MM GOOD — Sophomore Alicia Siegall's eyes seem to be centered on the cakes and brownies that Karen Harshberger is rapidly consuming during the French Club's Thanksgiving banquet.
2. ALL ABOARD — Police Science students Greg Conk and Chris Hampton search desperately for an empty seat on the bus that's taking them to the Los Angeles Criminal Courthouse for a field trip.
3. THE FRENCH CHEFS — Complete with chef's hats and aprons, French Club members Lorie Gray and Blair Caugherty assist in preparing some delicious crepes. Madam Ray's room is adorned with colorful posters of France and other European countries.
4. DETERMINED — An unidentified student works diligently on one of the wheels in the ceramics room.
5. APRIL SHOWERS — Unique umbrellas, huge puddles and a "turn lights off" reminder sign all came about as part of the seasonal rains. Mr. Clyde Vineyard and his son Todd can be seen under the umbrella at right.
6. READY AND RARIN' TO GO — Varsity basketball player John Lindenmyer looks defiant and anxious to start playing during another pre-game warmup of the notorious "Diving Fools."
7. ONE LAST LOOK — Sophomore Mary Waters takes a last look around the sophomore court on the last day of school. She's probably thinking to herself, "It's hard to believe it's all over . . ."
